CHANGE IN BOOK REVIEW EDITOR

Dr. Curtis M. Wilson of the University of Toledo has been Book Review Editor of the Ohio Journal of Science since May, 1950. He has recently accepted a position in Oregon and so has resigned from his position with the Journal, which loses thereby an enthusiastic friend and energetic worker. Dr. Frank W. Fisk has accepted a new position of Book Review and Associate Editor, beginning with this number. Requests for books for review, correspondence about book reviews, and books for review should be addressed to Dr. F. W. Fisk, Book Review Editor, Botany and Zoology Building, Ohio State University, Columbus 10, Ohio.
