

Agricultural Technical Institute

The Ohio State University

Thirteenth Annual Commencement

June 11, 1986

JOHN R. BLOCK
1986 COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

John R. Block served from 1981 to 1986 as Secretary of the United States Department of Agriculture. He is now president of the National-American Wholesale Grocers' Association, based in the Washington D.C. area, which represents 350 wholesale grocers and food service distributors.

Mr. Block is originally from Illinois, and is a graduate of the U.S. Military Academy in West Point, New York. He served for three years as an infantry officer and returned to Illinois in 1960 to operate the family-owned Block Farms in Galesburg.

Prior to being named Secretary of Agriculture in late 1980, he has served for four years as Director of Agriculture for the State of Illinois. At the time of his resignation in February 1986, Mr. Block was one of four remaining Cabinet Officers from the original Reagan Cabinet.

As a member of the Reagan Cabinet, he was a key member of the Economic Policy Council, which dealt with difficult tax and domestic farm program issues. He also served on the Trade Policy Committee and Cabinet Council on Commerce and Trade, and chaired the Cabinet Council on Food and Agriculture. Under his leadership, the Department of Agriculture's Food for Peace program was a primary resource in feeding a starving African continent. Mr. Block also served as president of the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations.
