Preface

We are pleased to deliver the seventh volume of Buckeye East Asian Linguistics. This volume includes two keynote speakers' abstracts, one keynote speaker's article and 14 proceeding articles from the Fifth Buckeye East Asian Linguistics Forum in 2022. The biennium BEAL Forum was previously held in October 2014, 2016, 2018, and March 2021 (due to the COVID 19 pandemic, the fourth Forum was postponed). We resumed the regular biennium schedule and held the BEALF5 on Friday, October 28, 2022, via Zoom, The Ohio State University (OSU) Columbus campus (<http://u.osu.edu/beal/>).

We would like to take this opportunity to thank all the presenters and participants who came to the Forum to share their ideas. We are particularly grateful to our three keynote speakers at the Forum, Professors Hana Kang (University of Notre Dame), Masahiko Minami (San Francisco State University) and Peggy Pik Ki Mok (Chinese University of Hong Kong), and six commentators, Professors Dana Bourgerie (Brigham Young University), John Bundschuh (Swarthmore College), Fang-yi Chao (Sarah Lawrence College), Hana Kang (University of Notre Dame), Akiko Kashiwagi (Oakland University), and George Chunsheng Yang (University of Connecticut). Many faculty members, and current and past graduate students in the East Asian linguistics community at OSU served on the organizing committee or helped with the Forum in many other ways. Our sincere gratitude also goes to them. In addition, we thank the Forum reviewers: John Bundschuh, Marjorie K.M. Chan, Paul Cockrum, Alexander Francis-Ratte, Seth Goss, Yuki Hattori, Hana Kang, Ka Fai Law, Shunichi Maruyama, Keitaro Mitsuhashi, Mineharu Nakayama, Caroline Norfleet, Jack Rouzer, Yutian Tan, Saori Wakita, Sue-mei Wu, Zhiguo Xie, Seojin Yang, Jinwei Ye, Xuan Ye, Etsuyo Yuasa, Xin Zhang, Wei William Zhou, and Yuhong Zhu.

We also extend our gratitude to all of those who submitted articles to this volume. Finally, we are grateful to the Department of East Asian Languages and Literatures, East Asian Studies Center, Graduate Association of Chinese Linguistics, Graduate Students of East Asian Languages and Literatures, and the Knowledge Bank of The Ohio State University Libraries, which made this publication possible.

Buckeye East Asian Linguistics (BEAL)

Buckeye East Asian Linguistics is an open-access online publication launched in 2015. It is dedicated to the empirical study of languages spoken in East Asian countries/regions, including cross-linguistic research that draws on East Asian languages. It is edited by the faculty members and graduate students in the East Asian linguistics community at The Ohio State University, and published by the Knowledge Bank, which is administered by OSU Libraries. It aims to help disseminate the most updated research of East Asian linguistics to the global scholarly community so as to encourage and foster the widest communication and collaboration among scholars interested in East Asian linguistics.
