

The Knowledge Bank at The Ohio State University

Ohio State Engineer

Title: The American Society of Civil Engineers

Issue Date: 1942-12

Publisher: Ohio State University, College of Engineering

Citation: Ohio State Engineer, vol. 26, no. 2 (December, 1942), 18.

URI: <http://hdl.handle.net/1811/35900>

---

THE AMERICAN SOCIETY OF CIVIL ENGINEERS

The American Society of Civil Engineers began their year's program on October 6, with a party at Brown Hall welcoming new Freshman and rushing new Sophomore members. The new officers: President, Fred Hughes; Vice President, Baird Heffron; Secretary-Treasurer, Neil Christy, were introduced.

Dr. H. A. Burt, member of the psychology department, discussed industrial psychology at the second meeting of October 19.

The Tacoma Bridge Failure was the topic of interest at the third bi-monthly meeting. Professor G. E. Large, guest speaker, explained the movies and slides of the bridge at Tacoma, Washington.

---