Notes of Interest

Football Applications available for Ohio State Students: Applications for season tickets for Buckeye football are now available from the Athletic Office. OSU-Lima students may pick up their applications in Ck. 105. Completed applications must be returned to Columbus by April 30. Remember to bring your I.D. also!

Book Exchange Deadline is past: Anyone with books in the book exchange must take care of accounts as soon as possible or the ownership will turn to the Student Senate.

Special Guest on campus Monday: ARCHIE GRIFFIN, Ohio State graduate, former Cincinnati Bengals player and current OSU - Special Assistant to the Director of Athletics, will be in the student lounge from 10:45-11:15 a.m. Don't miss this special visit!

Music and Art History to be featured at Noon: On Tuesday, a noon concert/lecture by Art Schrader will be presented. Schrader is a historian who specializes in finding and singing early popular songs. The program "Songs with a Purpose" will be held on Tuesday from 12-12:45 in Room 160 of SAB.

At noon, on Thursday, a video tape entitled "Leonardo: To Know How to See" will be shown in SAB 160. The 55 minute video tells the life story of Leonardo Di Vinci.

Both programs are part of the Cultural Affairs Committee Noon Series.

Ohio State Students, YOUR vote is needed: The Lima Campus representative to Undergraduate Student Government will be elected this week. The representative is a link between Columbus and Lima. Candidates are planning to attend Main Campus next year. The OSU-Lima candidates are: Randy Fletcher, Jill Haunhorst, Abbie Holcombe, and Jennifer Ryan. Polls will be manned from 9-3 on Tuesday in Galvin Hall and on Wednesday in Cook Hall.

Campus Ministry Coordinator applications: must be submitted to Carole Enneking (Student Activities Office) or Mary Collins (TEL) by April 15.

Having difficulty with college courses? On Thursday, a special presentation on academic support will be held from 12-1 in GA 135. This program is for anyone who is experiencing trouble with academic course work. Also available is a New Support group for academically troubled students. The group will meet on Tuesday from 11:15-12:15 in the Library conference room.

New issue out for Campus Connection: Pick up the new issue today! Look for a new format, more information, and even a comic strip!

Photographers alert! A photography contest is planned for May Week. Artistic photos (color or black & white) are welcome. The general public will select winners!

Upcoming Events: West of Everything: Men, Women, and the American "Frontier" will be presented on Thurs. April 23, 1987 at 8 p.m. The lecture will examine social identities in popular literature. Poet, Alice Fulton, will read original works on Thurs. April 30 at noon. Dulcimer Festival: The annual folk music festival is scheduled on campus April 24-26. MAY WEEK: mark your calendars for May 5-9 when the annual Spring celebration takes place. Practice your tricycling, pizza eating, running, and dunking skills. Everyone on campus is encouraged to get involved.
