

NEW AND RARE PLANTS OF OHIO.

JOHN H. SCHAFFNER.

The following interesting plants have been added to the Ohio State Herbarium during the year 1911. Several species show a considerable extension of the range hitherto known:

Lycopodium clavatum L.

South Bloomingville, Hocking Co. R. F. Griggs.

Chenopodium vulvaria L. Fetid Goosefoot.

Columbia Station, Lorain Co. Sent by E. L. Fullmer; collected by Rev. E. H. Thompson.

Acnida concatenata Moq. Glomerate Water-hemp.

Columbus, Franklin Co. John H. Schaffner and Forest B. H. Brown.

Acnida tamariscina (Nutt.) Wood. Western Water-hemp.

Columbus, Franklin Co. John H. Schaffner and Forest B. H. Brown.

Magnolia tripetala L. Umbrella Magnolia.

On Turkey Creek, near Portsmouth, Scioto Co. Edmund Secrest.

Fragaria vesca alba (Ehr.) Rydb. White Strawberry.

Big Pine Creek, Hocking Co. R. F. Griggs.

Opuntia humifusa Raf. Western Prickly-pear.

Adams County, Ohio, opposite Vanceburg, Ky. Mr. and Mrs. Jesse E. Hyde.

Pyrola rotundifolia L. Roundleaf Wintergreen.

South Bloomingville, Hocking Co. John H. Schaffner.

---

<sup>1</sup>Presented at the meeting of the Ohio Academy of Science, Columbus, December 1, 1911.