Notes of Interest

Almost All-night Social Event planned for Friday: The Social Activities Board will present the second annual fun night this Friday. Doors open for the FREE event at 8:30 p.m. in Galvin Basement. A variety of events such as: billiards, twister, limbo, Win, Lose, or Draw, fooseball, euchre, "Randy" says, etc. will be open for team and individual competition. Teams of five people (at least 2 women) can compete in all events and vie for the grand prize. Snacks and Pizza will be provided for all. Mark your calendars, and gather teams NOW..

Lunch Series features Gospel Music: A Fort Wayne trio, Witness, will perform on Thursday from 12-1 p.m. in SAB 160. The program will highlight contemporary black gospel styles.

Enter your Sexy Lips: As a community service project, the Student Senate will sponsor a Sexy Lips contest. For a $.50 donation, you can enter your lip prints--then enter the judging for the best lips on campus. Proceeds go to the Teddy Bear Fund; the fund distributes Teddy Bears to all children admitted to Lima area hospitals. Entry locations for the contest will be all building lobbies!

Upcoming Black History Events announced: Next week, artist Kai Kambell will exhibit her works in SAB 160. On Wednesday, Kambell will discuss her techniques and background in art. Viewing hours will be scheduled as follows Mon. (12-1), Tues., Wed., Thurs, (11-1).

On Sat., Feb. 20, the New Minority Student Union will present a Gospel Extravaganza at the Salvation Army Community Center. Area soloists and church choirs will be featured as well as Dr. Jack Taylor. Taylor will address the audience on issues related to Blacks and Education. Tickets for the program will cost $2.50--adults, $1.50--students, and are available from MSU members or at the door.

Valentine's Feeling Alive on Campus: This week in addition the Sexy Lips Contest, WOSL Radio and the Cheerleaders will offer a touch of romance. WOSL Radio will air special song dedications and messages. The Cheerleaders are offering tickets for their "date" raffle. No, you do not win a person to date, but rather all the ingredients for a great date (dinner, movie, gifts, etc.).

Free movie scheduled for Feb. 19: SAB will sponsor a showing of the recent hit "Stake Out" on the 19th. Showings will begin at 11:30 a.m. and 2 p.m., locations to be announced.

Art and Music offered in area: The Putnam Cty. Library will exhibit the works of Bruce James Stowe from Feb. 14--March 18, 1988. Stowe's works reflect pottery, art and structures of the ancient arts.

A Faculty Trumpet Recital is scheduled for Mon., Feb. 15 at Weigel Hall on OSU's Main Campus. Tom Battenburg and Richard Burkhart and 13 other musicians will perform jazz music for the 8 p.m. concert. On Thurs., Feb. 18, the OSU Wind Ensemble will perform Mozart's Serenade, K. 370a at 8 p.m. in Weigel Hall.

Unsure of What the Future Holds for you?: LTC is offering a Career Decisions Course for Spring Quarter. The course is designed to help you appraise your interests, abilities, aptitudes, needs, and values and to present information on careers and occupations in order to assist you in selecting the right major for you. For more information, contact Jon Steingass in GA 205 or Frank Tascone in GA 015.
