

Editor's Preface

This very interesting issue on Disability Identity was brought together by Miriam Hertz and Carol Gill. I will let their introduction speak for itself. I congratulate them on their work.

All matters concerning subscriptions and production are handled by the national headquarters of the Society for Disability Studies. Information may be obtained from the Society's website <www.uic.edu/orgs/sds>. The SDS office may be reached by telephone at 312-996-4664 (V/TTY), by fax at 312-413-2918, by email at <cg16@uic.edu> or by mail at:

In addition I remind you that DSQ is now paged continuously through the four print issues. The pagination in the email and disk versions will not conform with the print version.

In September 1994 (three months before his death) Irv Zola began plans to publish Meaningful Relationships/Moments in Time, an autobiographical collection of 21 short stories all of which carry a disability theme. A copy of this treasure may be obtained in exchange for donations ($10 is suggested) to Boston Self Help Center, or to Friends of Howe Library (where Irv's books and papers are being archived for use by the public), or to Disability Studies Quarterly. Send your check to Irv's wife: Judy Norsigian, 43 Waban Hill Rd. N., Newton, MA 02167. Please remember to include your name and address. Meaningful Relationships/Moments in Time, as well as Irv's archives, is also available at <www.irvingzola.com>.
