

OHIO STATE LAW JOURNAL

Volume 71, Number 5, 2010

SYMPOSIUM:

Originalism and the Jury

Articles

Foreword Suja A. Thomas	883
Making the Framers' Case, and a Modern Case, For Jury Involvement in Habeas Adjudication Douglas A. Berman	887
Originalism and Summary Judgment Brian T. Fitzpatrick	919
Juries and Originalism: Giving "Intelligible Content" to the Right to a Jury Trial Judge Nancy Gertner	935
Ancient Juries and Modern Judges: Originalism's Uneasy Relationship with the Jury Joan L. Larsen	959
The Lawfinding Power of Colonial American Juries William E. Nelson	1003
On the Question of a Complexity Exception to the Seventh Amendment Guarantee of Trial by Jury James Oldham	1031
Business and Jury Trials: The Framers' Vision Versus Modern Reality Gene Schaerr & Jed Brinton	1055
A Limitation on Congress: "In Suits at common law" Suja A. Thomas	1071

