Notes of Interest

Yes, we are in school on Columbus Day: Just in case you wondered, the Lima Campus observes Columbus Day on Friday, November 28. Classes are cancelled on Veteran's day, however.

Your Vote is important: Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday are election days on campus. Each and every student is welcome and encouraged to vote for Student Senate members. Don't use the excuse that you know nothing about candidates-- information about each of them is now available in the Activities Office and will also be at the polls. Voting includes hotdogs, cider, and snacks. Advance tickets are required, and available from the Activities Office, Campus Ministers (SAB 119) or from Becky Grass, Amy Jones (Student Coordinators).

Australian Musician Visits Campus: This week's noon entertainment will feature Seona McDowell, Australian folk singer, storyteller, and musician. Seona performed last Spring to rave reviews! The program will last from 12-1pm on Thursday in SAB 160.

First Pool Tournament Off and Running: The Game Room Single's 8-ball Tournament is underway. Students will play best out of 5 in a double elimination tournament. Prizes: gift certificates to local music/record store. Next tournament: EUCHRE (deadline Oct. 23).

Education Students to Meet: SNEA, a national organization for students pursuing an education degree, will meet the first time on Tuesday from 12-1pm in room 446 of Galvin Hall. Speaker for the day will Louise Kutz. Come and find out what the group is all about.

Marketing/Management Club Organizes- the first meeting of the year will be held on Tuesday, October 14 at 12:00 in GA 260. The topic for the day is "How to Market A New and Innovative Product". This organization is open to all Marketing and business majors.

Native American Poet to read on Campus: Lance Henson, Oklahoma poet, will be on campus, Thursday Oct. 16 from 12-1pm in SAB 160. Selections from his seven books will be presented.

Need To Talk? limited personal counseling is available on campus from 11am-12pm on Mondays, Wednesdays and Thursdays. Campus Ministry, a interdenominational group, sponsors this service. You can find the ministers located SAB 119 (the small room in the faculty office area). You needn't have a serious problem to stop by.

New Food Service Manager Announced: Elsie Weis has been appointed as acting Manager of the SAB Cafeteria, according to Donna Butsch of Cardinal Services. Congratulations!

Sports Update: Women's /volleyball Season underway - the record is 1:4
Next match is Tuesday against Sinclair and Urbana Colleges.
