Notes of Interest

Campus Connection prints new issue: Today the holiday issue of the campus newspaper hits the streets (or hallways, lounges, etc.). Be sure to check to see if any of your friends sent you holiday wishes! Next issue will come out in January.

Attention Student Leaders: Are you responsible for gathering new members or increasing awareness of your group? If so, be sure to attend the Public Relations workshop being presented by the Student Activities Department. Workshop leaders will be Thom Sinn, graduate assistant and Lisa Harkins, Coordinator of Communication Services. The Workshop is planned for TUESDAY from 5-7pm in SAB 160.

Want to get into the holiday spirit? Be sure to clear you calendars for Friday, Dec. 5 at 8pm. The Campus Chorus will present their fall quarter concert in the Auditorium on that night. Support your fellow students and enjoy a great program.

WANTED: Your ideas on activities: The Social Activities Board wants your input on ideas for winter and spring programs and events on campus. Here is your chance to add ideas and even get involved! Watch for the yellow surveys - it only takes 2 minutes to complete!

What should I do with MY textbooks? Student Senate will once again sponsor the BOOK EXCHANGE at the end of fall quarter/beginning of winter quarter. What is the book exchange? It is an alternative method of selling textbooks to fellow students or purchasing used textbooks at a reasonable price. Look for the Bid Wooden Box in the Student Lounge (Galvin Basement) during finals week and take advantage of the Book Exchange.

More Baked Goods: The Office Education Association will sponsor all-day bake sales in TEL lobby on Monday and Tuesday. Take some goodies home for Thanksgiving!

Student Senate Welcomes your interest: The Student Senate will meet on Tues. Dec. 2 at 12 noon in GA 252. Come find out what the OSU/LTC Senate does and share your ideas on how to improve the campus.

LTC Health Programs Open House: Curious about careers in Radiology, Dental Hygiene, Respiratory Care, Nursing and Paramedics? Visit the open house on Tues. Dec. 2, 1986 6-8pm in Cook Hall.

Sports News: Men's Basketball record: 3-1
LOCAL RIVALS NBC TECH. VS. OSU/LTC BARONS: TUESDAY NIGHT
Support your team, Admission is FREE with valid student I.D.
Women's Basketball: Season starts this Saturday against Edison State.

It's Turkey Time!
