NOTES OF INTEREST

TAKE A "SENTIMENTAL JOURNEY" WITH THE CORSAIRS - Hear all those old favorites of the Big Band era when The Corsairs entertain you at noon on Tues. Jan. 12 in Reed Hall 160. The Corsairs, a vocal trio, sing in the styles of the groups popular then - The Mills Brothers, The Ink Spots, even The Andrews Sisters! You're sure to enjoy their presentation!

DR. WILFRED ELLIS TO GIVE KING TRIBUTE - The Lima Campus' 7th Annual tribute to Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. will be given by Dr. Wilfred Ellis on Fri. Jan. 15 from 11:00-12:00 in Reed Hall 160. The students, faculty, and staff are urged to attend this memorable event.

DID YOU SELL YOUR BOOK AT THE BOOK EXCHANGE? - Fri. Jan. 15 is the date to pick up your check in the Student Activities Office (GA066) if your book(s) were sold at the Winter Quarter Book Exchange. Books that were not sold may also be picked up at this time.

STUDENT SENATE NEEDS YOU! - The Student Senate guides campus policy and acts as liaison to the campus administration, presents programs on relevant issues, and promotes special projects that benefit the campus and the community. It's a great experience in decision making, and in honing organizational skills. The Senate is looking for new Senators from LTC. If you are interested, please stop by Student Activities (GA066) to pick up an application and a petition form. Join the group that makes things happen!

BARON BLOWOUT IS BIG BASKETBALL BASH! -You're in for a great evening of basketball, games and giveaways, prizes and FUN at the Baron Blowout, Wed. Jan. 13, starting at 5:30 in the Cook gymnasium. The Lady Barons take to the boards against Bluffton College in the evening opener at 5:30. The men will see action against Concordia College at 7:30. During halftimes, YOU can be a basketball star at the Halftime Shootout! Your student I.D. is your ticket to this merry madness! Be there!

"WHITE MEN CAN'T JUMP" WEDNESDAY MOVIE - The S.A.B. presents this first run film for your viewing pleasure on Wed. Jan. 13 in the Student Lounge (GA 015) at 10:00 and 12:00 noon.

DRAWINGS AND COLLAGES FEATURED IN NEW SHOW - Ashland University Professor of Art David Sapp opens the Winter Quarter art exhibit season on Sun. Jan. 17 in Reed Hall 160 with a display of large black and white drawings and collages using found objects. Sapp will present a "gallery talk" on Tues. Jan. 19 to talk about his work.

CAMPUS CLUBS ANNOUNCE MEETING DATES - The Students of Color Coalition, (S.O.C.C.), will give students a choice of meeting times-Tuesdays at 10:00 or Wednesdays at 1:00 in the conference area of the Student Activities Office GA066.--- The "Challengers," the club of the physically and academically challenged on Lima Campus, will meet during the quarter each week on Mondays at 1:00 in the Student Activities Office GA066. --- The Social Activities Board has set Thursdays at noon for their Winter quarter meeting time. Join them in the Student Activities Conference room (GA066) each week to plan the fun activities that add another dimension to campus life.

STUDENT VOLUNTEERS NEEDED - Regina Freeman, Coordinator of Minority Affairs, needs help with a live teleconference, "Multicultural Forum" to be held in Reed Hall 160 at 1:00 on Wednesday January 13. Please contact Regina in GA 205 for more information.

ACUI TOURNAMENTS START NEXT WEEK - Calling all 8-Ball players (men and women), Foosball and Chess players. Sign up in the Game Room (GA015) by Tues. Jan. 12 to enter our campus ACUI Tournaments. Winners will travel to Kent State University Feb. 27-28 for an All EXPENSE paid weekend of competition. Participants are required to have a G.P.A. of 2.0 or better. Enter today and make Lima Campus #1 at Kent State!
