KIRK NUGENT

Come and see Kirk Nugent, one of the most powerful word artists today. Kirk Nugent, of Kingston, Jamaica, made his formal introduction to the creative world as a Spoken Word Artist, using his writing abilities and the microphone to convey messages of empowerment while using the stage as his platform to speak out against social injustice.

LeaderShape Institute

LeaderShape is a week-long, intensive leadership experience for Ohio State students that has literally changed lives. This year, the week is June 15-20, 2004 at the ATI-Wooster campus. They take 60 participants and they are looking to add some regional campus students to their mix! They have had regional campus leaders attend in the past and it always adds a great dynamic to the mix. There are applications available in the Student Activities Office (GA 066).

The application deadline is February 27th and all students will be contacted before Spring Break. Students can also download an application and find out more info on their website at: <http://leadershape.org.ohio-state.edu/index.php>.

History Club Bake Sale

The History Club will hold a bake sale and Valentine's Day drawing on Thursday, February 12 from 11:00-3:00 in Galvin Lobby. The drawing is for a chance to win a basket with Valentine's Day gifts. Tickets for the drawing are a dollar each or six tickets for five dollars.
