

Ohio Slavic and East European Newsletter

083 Foreign Area Fellowships Program, 110 E. 59th St., New York, NY 10022. Fellowships for graduate and postdoctoral training in U.S. or abroad, or both, in the field of social sciences and humanities relating to Africa, the Soviet Union and Eastern Europe, Asia and the Near East, Latin America, and Western Europe.

084 American Association of University Women Fellowships Office, 2401 Virginia Ave., N.W., Washington, D.C. 20037. Fellowships for use in U.S. or abroad to advance the education of women.

085 American Council of Learned Societies, 345 E. 46th St., New York, N.Y. 10017. Awards for computer-oriented research in the humanities.

086 Kent Fellowship Program, The Danforth Foundation, 222 S. Central Ave., St. Louis, Mo. 63105.

087 Yugoslav Club for persons in the Greater Dayton area. Contact: Rev. Gabriel J. Rus, S. M., Director of International Education, University of Dayton, 300 College Park Ave., Dayton, Ohio 45469. (513) 229-2748.

088 The Duquesne University Tamburitzens are scheduled to appear in Ohio Wesleyan University's Gray Chapel at 8 P.M. on May 3, 1973 under the sponsorship of Delaware Council 1056 of the Knights of Columbus. The Tamburitzens are a collegiate group of 32 folk artists dedicated to the preservation of Slavic folk culture in the U.S. (No ticket details available at press time.)

089 A new Russian-language newspaper published in the U.S. for students of Russian. "The Daily Planet is a journal of diversified contemporary Russian language reading material. Its goal is to provide teachers and students on high school and university levels with exciting and useful additions to classroom and take-home activities." 1 year/$5.00. Write: The Daily Planet, c/o The Creative Learning Group, 145 Portland St., Cambridge, Mass. 02139.

090 A Russian Orthodox priest will speak at Hiram College, Hiram, Ohio, on Thursday May 10, 1973 at 7:30 P.M. The speaker will describe his recent trip to the Soviet Union where he visited some traditional Orthodox shrines, conversed extensively with Soviet citizens, and spent some time in his native village. The lecture will be held in the Brown Room of the Kennedy Center. The History Department of Hiram College is sponsoring the lecture. Contact: R. V. Layton, Dept. of History, Hiram College, Hiram, Ohio 44234. (216) 569-3138.

Ohio Slavic and East European Newsletter

091 Revised Directory of College and University Instructors of the Czech Language and Literature in the United States.

Write: Prof. John Jarolimek, College of Education, Univ. of Washington, Seattle, Washington 98195.

092 Great Lakes Colleges Association faculty seminar funded by the Overseas Projects of the Institute of International Studies (U.S. Office of Education) entitled "Social Change in the Urban Environment--Poland." Purpose: To promote and enrich international studies on the twelve campuses of the GLCA by providing an intensive learning experience for fourteen GLCA faculty members in Poland. By using a comparative study of urbanization as the organizing principle for the exploration, each participating faculty member will focus his attention on a particular urban problem with which he is familiar in the U.S. in the unfamiliar setting of Poland. Contact: Prof. Irwin Abrams, Coordinator of International Programs, GLCA, Antioch College, Yellow Springs, Ohio 45387. (513) 767-7331.

093 The University of Akron Tour of Eastern Europe with Mrs. Maria Kuberczyk. June 14, 1973 - July 12, 1973. Itinerary includes Amsterdam, Heidelberg, Prague, Vienna, Budapest, Cracow, Lwow, Kiev, Kharkov (or Orel), Moscow, Leningrad (optional), Minsk, Warsaw, Poznan, Berlin, Cologne. Cost: Approx. $887.00 (based on minimum of 25 participants). Contact: Mrs. Maria Kuberczyk, Dept. of Special Programs, The Univ. of Akron, Akron, Ohio 44304.

Deadline for May Newsletter is May 15, 1973. Please let us know what is happening so we can share that information with your colleagues!

rs.