

The Knowledge Bank at The Ohio State University
Ohio Mining Journal

Title: The Ohio Mining Journal - The Causes Which Led to its Publication

Issue Date: Nov-1882

Citation: Ohio Mining Journal, vol. 1, no. 1 (November, 1882), 44-45.

URI: <http://hdl.handle.net/1811/32311>

Appears in Collections: Ohio Mining Journal: Volume 1, no. 1 \(November, 1882\)

THE OHIO MINING JOURNAL—THE CAUSES WHICH LED TO ITS PUBLICATION.

Upon the adjournment of the Nelsonville meeting, the President forwarded the proceedings to the Trade Review, the official organ of the Institute. The minutes of the meeting appeared in a mutilated form, and the editor declined to publish one paper; that by Mr. Chamberlain, The President thereupon directed the editor to return all the manuscript, and not to publish any of the papers furnished. Mr. Hazeltine's paper being in type, was printed afterwards, but in such a garbled and mutilated form that it had to be re-written for publication.

Owing to the prevalence of the great iron strike, it was deemed proper, after correspondence with members of the Institute, residing in the Mahoning Valley, not to meet in September, but to call a meeting of the Executive Board. A meeting of this Board was therefore called to meet in Youngstown, September 30, at which the following business was transacted:

YOUNGSTOWN, Sept. 30, 1882.

At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Ohio Institute of Mining Engineers, with President Roy in the chair:

On motion of Mr. R. M. Hazeltine, it was

Resolved, That the Trade Review, of Cleveland, Ohio, be no longer regarded as the official organ of the Institute of Mining Engineers.

Whereupon the President of the Institute stated that he had corresponded with the following journals in regard to becoming the official organ of the Institute, to wit: "Coal," "Coal Trade Journal," and several Ohio journals. The propositions of these journals were discussed at length, after which the following resolution was adopted.

Resolved, That this Institute publish a quarterly journal to be known as THE OHIO MINING JOURNAL, which journal is to be the property and the official organ of this Institute, to be published at Columbus, Ohio. The numbers of said journal to be issued November 15, February 15, May 15, and August 15, beginning with November 15, 1882. This journal is to be furnished free to all members of the Institute, and to subscribers at $2 per annum, in advance; the price of single copies to be 50 cents.

On motion, Mr. Roy was to make such arrangements as would secure the prompt appearance of the first number.

The vacancy in the Executive Committee, caused by the death of Thomas O. Davis, of Jackson, Jackson county, was filled by the election of George Willege, of Wellston, Jackson county.

R. S. PAUL,

Secretary.