MEMBERS OF THE MEDIA

The Department of Athletics would like to take this opportunity to thank those members of the media who over the years have covered Buckeye volleyball. We have enjoyed working with you and look forward to doing so again during the 2015 season. This team guide has been prepared to assist you in your coverage of the Buckeyes. Every effort has been made to ensure both its accurateness and its thoroughness. Hopefully, this publication will allow you to glean more information about all aspects of the Ohio State women's volleyball program and The Ohio State University. This publication also contains important information relative to interviews with Ohio State players and coaches, as well as instructions for applying for credentials. Any questions in either area should be directed to Kyle Kuhlman at 614-292-0088 or kuhlman.137@osu.edu. Again, thank you for your coverage of Ohio State's 36 varsity teams.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

In order to qualify for a credential, an applicant must represent the recognized news organization requesting credentials. Please direct all credential requests to Kyle Kuhlman, assistant athletics communications director. Email requests to: kuhlman.137@osu.edu. Confirmation of your request will be made upon receipt. Credentials are for adult use only and are non-transferrable.

WEB SITES

Media credentials are issued only for individuals who are affiliated with web sites for national or regional television and news media organizations, e.g., USA Today Online, ESPN.com, etc., for institutions that are Big Ten Conference members, non-conference opponents and for the Big Ten Conference. The Ohio State University reserves the right to deny media credentials to any individual whose web site is not affiliated with an official news gathering organization.

CREDENTIAL PICK-UP

Credentials may be picked up in the Athletics Communications office on the 6th floor of the Fawcett Center prior to the match. All remaining credentials will be placed at the media pass gate and will be available one hour prior to the beginning of the match. The media pass gate is located at the middle set of doors on the west side of St. John Arena in the walkway between the French Field House and St. John Arena. Proper identification is required to obtain credentials and they are not transferrable.

ST. JOHN ARENA PRESS ROW

Press seating in St. John Arena will be provided as needed. Tables will be placed in the south bleachers to accommodate the media needs with regards to print and radio. Visiting radio will be located in the south bleachers toward the west aisle behind the visiting team bench. Broadcast television will be set up in the north bleachers where cable run access is available to the northeast corner of St. John Arena.

PHONE LINES

Those members of the media wishing to order their own phone line can do so by calling University Phone Services at 614-292-8648.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Photo credentials are issued to daily newspapers, wire services and special periodical publications. No flash photography is permitted and strobe use must be approved in advance. Photographers are required to stay behind the basketball outer court boundary on the north side and must be at the bleachers on the ends of the court. Please be alert as the entire court, up to the bleachers, is in the field of play.

COACH AND PLAYER INTERVIEWS

Media wishing to conduct coach and/or player interviews with the women's volleyball team should contact Kuhlman in the OSU Athletics Communications Office. Please call at least one day in advance to allow setup time.

HEAD COACH GEOFF CARLSTON

The 2015 season marks Geoff Carlston's eighth as Ohio State's head coach. He took the reins of the women's volleyball team on Feb. 5, 2008 and is the fifth head coach of the Buckeyes in the 44-year history of the program.

Carlston enters '15 with a career winning percentage of .682 in 15 years as a Division-I head coach, racking up 339 victories compared to just 158 defeats. His squads have averaged over 22.5 wins per season and own 11 years of 20 or more victories.

The native Minnesotan has made his mark in the state of Ohio, guiding the Bobcats of Ohio University and the Buckeyes to a combined 10 NCAA Tournament appearances. Carlton has directed Ohio State to the NCAA Sweet 16 in three of the last five seasons, one of just 13 schools in the country to accomplish that feat.

Before arriving in Columbus, Carlston started his NCAA Tournament success with five straight Mid-American Conference championships to propel Ohio into the big dance, including his first Sweet 16 showing in 2005. Carlston's squads are a combined 7-3 all-time in the NCAA First Round and 5-0 at Ohio State. He led the Bobcats to a conference crown in each of his five campaigns in Athens.

Carlston's pupils have often been recognized amongst the nation's elite, totaling 13 All-American accolades. Three Buckeyes -- Elizabeth Campbell, Taylor Sandbothe and Taylor Sherwin - earned AVCA All-America honorable mention in 2014. Ohio State's Katie Dull (2009), Emily Danks (2011) and Kaitlyn Leary (2013) also earned All-America honorable mention while Mari Hole was chosen in back-to-back seasons as an '11 honorable mention and Third Team member in 2012. Five Bobcats picked up All-American status under the tutelage of Carlston. On the conference level, Carlston has molded 12 All-Big Ten, 25 All-MAC and eight All-NSIC performers since 2000.

Academic success has followed Carlston throughout his career as well. Student-athletes receiving academic all-conference laurels has been a common occurrence under Carlston, racking up a total of 77 such awards: 42 Academic All-Big Ten, 25 Academic All-MAC, 10 Academic All-NSIC. His program was honored by the NCAA in May 2014 with the Public Recognition Award, given to teams scoring in the top-10 percent nationally in each sport based on their most recent multi-year Academic Progress Rates (APR).

For the first time in school history, three Buckeyes registered All-America recognition following the 2014 campaign. Elizabeth Campbell, Taylor Sandbothe and Taylor Sherwin pushed Ohio State into the NCAA Sweet 16 for the third time in five seasons and racked up 23 wins overall.

The 2013 Buckeyes swept through a 12-0 nonconference and finished the season with 18 wins overall. Senior Kaitlyn Leary was tabbed an AVCA All-America honorable mention while Taylor Sandbothe was placed on the Big Ten's All-Freshman squad.

Ohio State went on a four-year run of 20-or-more wins starting in 2009. In 2012, the Buckeyes registered a 23-11 overall ledger, including a 13-7 conference mark to earn place fourth in the daunting Big Ten Conference. Carlston and the Buckeyes notched the program's first ever win at Nebraska (3-1, Oct. 26) that season. Senior Mari Hole was named AVCA Third Team All-American and unanimously voted All-Big Ten while fellow senior Emily Danks and junior Kaitlyn Leary were All-B1G honorable mentions.

Carlston conducted a pair of treks to the Sweet 16 in 2010 and 2011. Juniors Mari Hole and Emily Danks picked up All-America nods during a 21-15 campaign in 2011 after the '10 Buckeyes notched a 24-12 overall win-loss tally en route to the first Sweet 16 jaunt.

In just his second season at Ohio State, Carlston pushed the Buckeyes to a 25-10 season record and 12-8 Big Ten tally in 2009. OSU returned to the NCAA Tournament via an at-large bid and hosted the first and second rounds in Columbus.

During the summer of 2011, Carlston served as head coach of one of the USAA-2 squads that played at the USA Volleyball Open National Championships Women's Open, finishing second.

Carlston came to Ohio State after spending five years as head coach at Ohio University, building a powerhouse in the Mid-American Conference. His squads reached the NCAA Tournament every season and won five straight conference crowns with an overall record of 144-22 during Carlston's time in Athens. The Bobcats won 78 of 80 MAC matches and went 14-1 in the conference tournament with four tourney titles. Four Bobcats were named MAC Player of the Year and a pair were tabbed MAC Freshman of the Year. He was named the MAC Coach of the Year four times and was twice named the Mideast Region Coach of the Year.

Prior to Ohio, Carlston posted a 49-42 record in three seasons at the helm of the Concordia University-St. Paul (Minn.) program. He took the Golden Bears from an 0-18 mark in the Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference the season before his arrival to a serious run at the league title in 2002.

CUSP finished the 2002 campaign with a 24-9 record - its best in Division II competition - and earned its first national ranking during the season. Carlson recruited three consecutive NSIC Freshman of the Year selections to play for the Golden Bears.

In the summer of 2002, Carlston served as coach of a Division II all-star team that played in a tournament in Holland. Competing against the top Dutch college and professional league teams, the group won gold and bronze medals. Before Concordia, Carlston served two seasons as a student assistant coach at Minnesota while completing a master's degree in social work.

Carlston began his coaching career in 1994 as head coach at Hopkins High School. In his two-year tenure, his teams went 41-17 and captured the Classic Lake Conference title both seasons.

He left the high school ranks for two years of service in Belize as a Peace Corps volunteer but stayed close to the sport, serving as head coach of the Belize women's national team and as an assistant for the men's national team. He helped develop a year-round training program and the team finished fourth at the 1997 Central America championship, earning the country's first international victories.

Upon his return to the United States, Carlston became head coach of the 17's team of the Minnesota One Junior Olympics club, which competed in the 17 Open Division at USA Nationals three consecutive years under his direction.

In June 1993, Carlston earned his undergraduate degree in speech communication from the University of Minnesota, where he played on the club team for the Gophers. The Plymouth, Minn., native is married to the former Sara Tibesar of St. Paul. The couple has two children and resides in Columbus.

COACHING STAFF

SUSAN HALVERSON - ASSISTANT COACH

Geoff Carlston added a familiar face in Susan Halverson to his coaching staff as an assistant coach in August 2015. Halverson had logged five previous seasons as a Buckeye, serving as the program's volunteer coach in 2012 and competing as a defensive specialist from 2007-10.

Halverson's past two seasons were spent patrolling the sidelines at the University of North Texas as an assistant coach. She and the Mean Green racked up 22 wins a year ago on the strength of Conference USA Player of the Year, Carnae Dillard. While living in the Lone Star State, Halverson also continued her work with USA Volleyball as the Technical Coordinator for the North Point Volleyball Club located in the USA Volleyball North Texas Region. During her prior stint in Columbus, Halverson was the System Coordinator (2011-13) for the Elite Volleyball Training Center in the USA Volleyball Ohio Valley Region.

As team captain, Halverson led her Buckeyes to the 2010 NCAA Sweet 16. For her career she racked up over 600 digs playing in 117 matches for the Scarlet & Gray.

Before graduating with a Human Development and Family Science degree (specialization in Early Childhood Education), Halverson was lauded as an all-around student-athlete, presented both the Corwin A. Fergus Award and Leann Grimes-Davidge Award in 2010. Fergus Award recipients 'excel in athletics, achieve academically, demonstrate positive qualities of character and citizenship and show potential for success in a graduate or professional program.' Halverson earned the Grimes-Davidge Award due to 'outstanding qualities of athletic performance, scholarship, character, campus or community involvement and leadership.' She utilized the Fergus Award post-graduate scholarship in her completion of a master's degree in 2012 (Education with a specialization in Pre-k to 3rd Grade).

LUKE MALONEY - DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS

Luke Maloney serves as the Director of Operations. He arrived in Columbus by way of Stephen F. Austin State University, spending the past two seasons as an assistant coach for the Ladyjacks.

Maloney brings eight years of collegiate volleyball experience with him to Columbus. In addition to two years at Stephen F. Austin, he also worked a pair of seasons for Oregon State University following a four-year playing career at George Mason University from 2007-2010.

Maloney was a part of 40 Ladyjack victories, including a 24-win campaign in 2014 which proved to be one of the best seasons in program history and ended with a Southland Conference regular season championship. Maloney and the Ladyjacks cruised through a 16-0 conference slate, taking 13 of the contests in just three sets, to capture SFA's first outright SLC title since 2006. The program ripped off 17 consecutive wins to conclude the regular season.

The Beavers of Oregon State utilized Maloney's talents as their volunteer assistant coach in 2012 and graduate manager in 2011.

Prior to arrival in Corvallis, Maloney coached for NEVILLIZMS in Bellevue, Wash., a private company specializing in individualized volleyball training. The company was founded by Bill Neville, former U.S. Men's National Team head coach.

NIKKI KLINGSPORN - ASSISTANT COACH

Nikki Klingsporn, an All-American setter at Marquette in 2010, embarks on her first season as a Buckeye in 2015. She brings four years of collegiate coaching experience with her to Columbus after playing professionally in the Spring of 2011.

Klingsporn spent the last three seasons as an assistant coach for the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee. She helped the Panthers rack up 18 victories en route to a Horizon League Tournament title and subsequent appearance in the 2013 NCAA Tournament. Klingsporn and the Panthers nearly made it back-to-back conference crowns in '14, falling in the league tournament championship match.

The Oakdale, Minn., native is no stranger to Big Ten Volleyball, playing at Wisconsin for three seasons before transferring to Marquette as a redshirt junior. At MU, Klingsporn was a two-time All-Big East setter and an honorable mention All-American her senior campaign (2010) following a 12.10 assists per set average which ranked fourth nationally. She was also a team captain in each of her two seasons with the Golden Eagles while earning academic all-league honors in all four of her eligible years.

After finishing her collegiate career, Klingsporn played for the Volleyball Club Wiesbaden in Germany, helping the team to a seventh-place finish in the Deutsche Volleyball Liga. Then, she returned to Marquette for one season as an undergraduate assistant coach, aiding the Golden Eagles to their first-ever NCAA Tournament berth and a win in the first round of the postseason. She trained and guided Marquette's freshman setter to Big East Freshman of the Year, Region Freshman of the Year and All-American honorable mention laurels.

Klingsporn comes from an athletic and coaching family, the daughter of two college athletes. Her mother and high school coach, Laura, is a member of the North Dakota State Athletics Hall of Fame and the Minnesota State High School Coaches Hall of Fame. Father, Mark, is a well-known basketball coach for Tartan High School.

PATRICK MALONEY - VOLUNTEER ASSISTANT COACH

Patrick Maloney hopped on board as the program's volunteer assistant coach starting in August 2015. He competed for the George Mason University volleyball squad from 2010-13. Maloney played in over 60 matches and compiled career numbers of 241 digs, 154 kills and 58 total blocks. The digs total ranks in the all-time top-20 in GMU history.

He picked up EIVA All-Academic accolades en route to earning an Environmental Science bachelor's degree in 2013, graduating with an impressive 3.90 GPA. The honors program member was also recognized as a Scholar-Athlete by GMU twice and the Colonial Athletic Association.

Since graduating, Maloney has spent time working in the medical field while continuing to compete in numerous beach and indoor volleyball events.

Luke played as an outside hitter and libero for the GMU Patriots. In 2008, he averaged 1.43 digs per set and served as primary passer en route to earning EIVA All-East Second Team honors. His 437 career digs still rank seventh all-time in school history. As an outside hitter, Maloney contributed to the top-ranked blocking team in the nation as well, posting 101 total blocks. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in English, earning Dean's List honors.

SUPPORT STAFF

JENNIFER NOVAK - ATHLETIC TRAINER

Jenn Novak, who returned to Ohio State in 2009, is responsible for the coverage of the women's volleyball and rowing teams.

Novak received a Bachelor of Science in athletic training from Kent State in 2005 and a Master of Science in allied health management from Ohio State in 2007. Prior to returning to Columbus, she spent two years as an assistant athletic trainer at the University of Minnesota where she was responsible for the coverage of the men's gymnastics and men's and women's swimming and diving teams.

In addition to her training responsibilities, Novak also teaches courses in athletic training and therapeutic modalities. In 2010, she was named the Clinical Instructor of the Year.

Novak has attended numerous state and national conventions and is a member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association, The Great Lakes Athletic Trainers' Association and Ohio Athletic Trainers' Association. She currently resides in Hilliard, Ohio.

JANINE OMAN - SPORT ADMINISTRATOR

Janine Oman has over 25 years experience in the collegiate athletics environment with her primary background as an athletic trainer and physical therapist providing care to student athletes. Currently Janine serves as the assistant athletic director for sport administration and sport performance. She recently added sport oversight duties for men's and women's lacrosse, men's and women's volleyball, field hockey, and rowing teams. Her other duties include leading a collaborative health care model inclusive of athletic training and strength and conditioning within Athletics and physician, nutrition, and psychology services from the OSU Sports Medicine Center.

Janine graduated from the Ohio State University with a Bachelor of Science degree in Allied Medical Professions with a certificate in physical therapy in 1985. Janine has an advanced master's degree in physical therapy from the University of North Carolina and obtained her athletic training certification in 1989. She worked as a physical therapist and athletic trainer for M/W track and field, W Volleyball, W Gymnastics, and M/W tennis while at North Carolina from 1989-1996. She returned back to Ohio State in 1996 as an assistant athletic trainer. She has worked with men's lacrosse, women's soccer, and the men's and women's tennis teams as well as providing PT services to student athletes from a multitude of other sports. She was named a Co-Head Athletic Trainer in 2005 and promoted to Assistant Athletic Director for Sport Performance in 2007.

Janine is a member of the National Athletic Trainer's Association and is an adjunct faculty member in the Athletic Training Education program and the Physical Therapy Sports Residency program.

ANTHONY GLASS - STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

Anthony Glass is marking his 15th season as the Director of Strength and Conditioning for Olympic at The Ohio State University following four years as the director at Georgia where he developed and oversaw all related programs for 20 Olympic sports teams.

Prior to his tenure at Georgia, Glass spent one year in a similar position at Boston College. Prior to that, he enjoyed four years as an instructor in the Department of Physical Education and assistant strength and conditioning coach at Northern Illinois, where he also earned a M.Ed. degree. (MS.ED)

Glass oversees a staff that manages the strength and conditioning progress of Ohio State's entire varsity sports program, with the exception of football and basketball.

Glass is certified by the National Strength & Conditioning Association, Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association, The American College of Sports Medicine and the United States of American Weightlifting Association. A native of North Carolina, he graduated from Appalachian State in 1990 with a degree in physical education.

While at Northern Illinois, he authored the book entitled "Weight Training: A Step by Step Guide to the Development of a Safe and Sound Program" in addition to a number of articles for major sports science journals. Glass is nationally recognized speaker and serves as a state director for both the NSCA and NASE.

Since 1984, Glass has competed successfully in power-lifting, winning several North Carolina and Illinois state championships. He has trained athletes of all levels from high school to the professional ranks.

He and his wife, Guerdie, have one son, Lee Anthony, Jr., and daughters Leila and Leena.

MAGGIE HEIM - STUDENT ASSISTANT COACH

Maggie Heim transitioned into a role on the coaching staff after two seasons competing as a student-athlete. She played in 41 matches, dishing out 252 assists as a setter. Her 24 helpers in a winning effort over Syracuse in 2014 marked a career-best effort.

Heim picked up Academic All-Big Ten honors in 2014.

ALEX HEYN - STUDENT ASSISTANT COACH

Alex Heyn signed on to be a Buckeye in 2012 before injuries forced her to hang up the sneakers and concentrate on the coaching side since 2013.

Heyn was slotted No. 68 in Prep Volleyball's Top-100 Seniors coming out of high school.

ST. JOHN ARENA RECORDS

THE HOME OF OHIO STATE VOLLEYBALL

Completed in November of 1956 at a cost of less than $4 million, St. John Arena, a 13,276-seat structure, is named for former OSU athletics director and basketball coach L.W. St. John.

The Ohio State women's volleyball team began playing its entire home schedule in St. John Arena in 1986. Prior to that season, the Buckeyes played the majority of their matches in Larkins Hall. Since 1986, OSU has a 298-129 (.698) record on the Arena floor.
