

The Knowledge Bank at The Ohio State University
Ohio State Engineer

Title: Alumni Notes

Issue Date: May-1919

Publisher: Ohio State University, College of Engineering

Citation: Ohio State Engineer, vol. 2, no. 1 (May, 1919), 24-27.

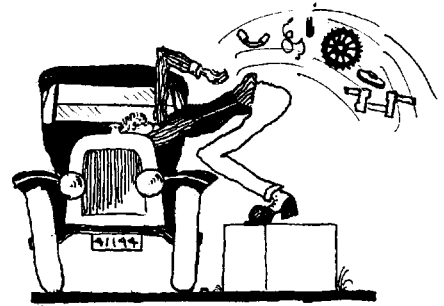

URI: <http://hdl.handle.net/1811/33971>

Appears in Collections: Ohio State Engineer: Volume 2, no. 1 \(May, 1919\)

NOW AND THIS TIME NEXT YEAR

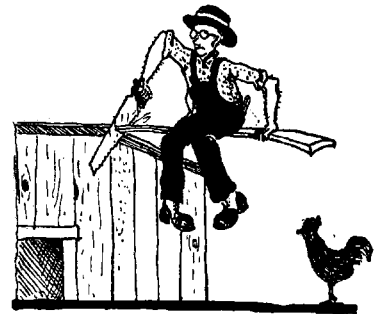

B. C. E.

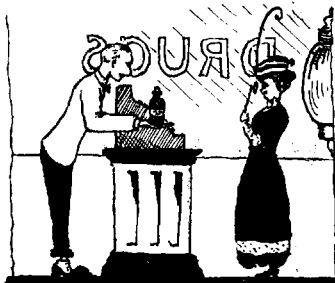

B. M. E.

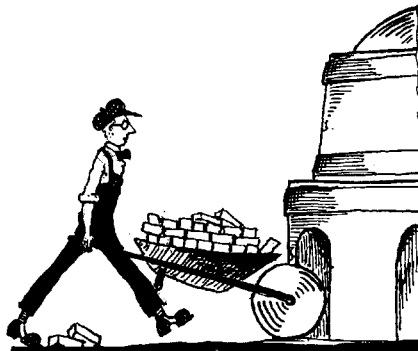

B. E. M.

B. Arch.

B. Chem. E.

B. Cer. E.

B. E. E.

ALUMNI NOTES

Geo. P. Fackt, '07 (B. S. Cer.) is now general manager of the Denver Terra Cotta Co., Denver, Colo.

Paul G. Larkin, '15 (B. S. Cer.) is now employed as ceramic chemist with the Denver Terra Cotta Co., Denver, Colo.

H. D. Barger, '17, is now employed as salesman by the Hocking Valley Brick Co., Logan, Ohio.

E. H. Lintz, '18, is engaged in research work for the State Geological Survey. He is now conducting an investigation of Illinois clay.

Urcell C. Hill, '11, is now located with the Conklin Annston Terra Cotta Co., Philadelphia. He was formerly with the New York Archt. Terra Cotta Co.

George G. Kent, '17, who was with the Jeffrey DeWitt Co. previous to the war, has accepted position with Star Grinding Wheel Company, Detroit.

Perry D. Hulaer, '17, formerly with Zanesville Mosaic Tile Co., of Zanesville, Ohio, is now with the Champion Ignition Co., Flint, Mich.

W. T. Garvet, ex '16, has accepted a position with Lovejoy Engr. Co., Columbus.

T. A. Klinefelter, '15, who recently left the research department of Westinghouse is now chief engineer Pittsburgh High Voltage Insulator Co.

Elsworth Ogden, '05, is now with the Owens Continuous Kiln Co., headquarters at Zanesville, Ohio.

T. K. Gregorius, '15, Ceramic Engr., is now with the Corning Glass Works, Corning, N. Y.

M. C. Gregory, '16, is now with the Corning Brick Terra Cotta and Tile Works, Corning, N. Y.

Howard Guy Courtney, '18, is taking a course of instruction at the Doherty Training Schools, Toledo, Ohio.

E. C. Covert is in the testing department, Westinghouse Mfg. Co., East Pittsburgh.

E. L. Hall is working in the Bureau of Standards, Washington, D. C.

J. H. Hunt is now in the Doherty Training School, Toledo, Ohio.

T. D. Robb is with the General Electric Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

William Sandoz is now with the General Electric Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

M. E. Shank is located with the Penna. R. R., Columbus, Ohio.

B. K. Smith is now assistant engineer, Bonney-Floyd Company, Columbus.

Owen B. Agner, '09, formerly with Loomis & Hart, Chattanooga, Tenn., is now with Agner, Street & Waugh, New York.

C. L. Brown, '15; A. Furnas, '15; K. W. Stinson, '16, and T. W. Danford, '14, have recently connected themselves with the Firestone Rubber Co., Akron, Ohio, doing pneumatic tire development work.

T. T. Theis, '16, has entered the employ of the Winton Motor Car Co.

D. E. Batesole, '15, is now with the Norma Mfg. Co., New York, manufacturers of ball bearings.

H. S. Riddle, '97, president Ohio State Board of Administration, has recently written a very interesting article on "State Use," describing manufacture of articles by prison labor for use in state institutions.

Geo. B. Thomas, '07, formerly professor of E. E., Colorado College, Colorado Springs, is now director of technical training, Western Electric Company, New York.

Panfilo Trombetta, '15, formerly with J. G. White Engr. Corps, is now with G. E. Research Dept., Schenectady.

D. A. Freeman, '08, who for the past year has been manager of the Detroit office of the Walter S. Newhall Co., general contractors of Cleveland, has been transferred to the Cleveland office.

W. M. Holmes, '17, of Dayton Engineering Laboratories Company, is now district manager in Eastern Indiana.

L. R. Matson, '17, is in the engineering department National Lamp Works, Cleveland.

C. E. Mauk, '17, is with the Penna. R. R., Columbus.

L. Schlegel, '17, is now employed by the Penna. R. R., Columbus.

L. W. Birch, '17, and C. F. Hawker, '17, are employed by the Carolina Power & Light Co., Raleigh, N. C.

N. A. Melick is chief engineer of the Newark Bay shipyard of the Submarine Boat Corporation.

B. R. Magee, Engineering, together with Mrs. Magee and daughter, Betty Jane, have returned to Cleveland after a year in Washington, D. C., where Mr. Magee was employed in governmental service in the construction of the emergency war buildings. Their address is now 16924 Endora Road, East Cleveland.

Murray R. Scott, Engr., is ceramic engineer with the Bausch and Lomb Optical Company, of Rochester, New York.

Wilbur Stout, B. E., has been elected a fellow of the Geological Society of America. He is assistant geologist, Geological Survey of Ohio.

William Boyd Stelzner, who took an M. Sc. degree last May, having already taken the degrees of B. E. E. in '07 and E. E. in 1911, is assistant professor of electrical engineering at the University of Arkansas, Fayetteville, and is in charge of electrical school emergency war training there.

Clarence R. King, Ch. E., is in Porto Rico for a stay of several weeks.

C. D. McGuire, Ch. E., is in active charge of the Columbus sewage disposal plant during the absence of C. B. Hoover in army service.

C. P. Leibold, E. E., is now with the Charleston Electrical Supply Company.

Russell Seward, who is connected with the Pennsylvania Railroad, lives at 107 Logan avenue, Altoona, Pa.

H. M. Plum, who has been for the last five years professor of chemistry in the University of Nebraska, has accepted a position as research chemist for the Standard Chemical Company. He received his master's degree at the university in '10 and took his doctor's degree at Chicago in '15.

B. J. Schwendt, E. E., '07, Supt. Telegraph and Signals, Toledo & Ohio Central and Zanesville & Western Railways, in charge of maintenance, operation and construction, was August 1 given jurisdiction over the Kanawha & Michigan and Kanawha & West Virginia railways. November 1, his jurisdiction was extended to include the Hocking Valley Railroad. His headquarters are at Columbus.

Dow R. Walker, M. E., went across Gatun Lake on Thanksgiving Day and shot a 400-pound tapir. It dressed 253 pounds, and was young and tender. The fishing in his locality is unexcelled and he tells an alluring tale of the tropical fruit hanging about his door.

F. C. Jeannot, M. E., is Superintendent of the Sharon District, Mahoning and Shenango Railway and Light Company. His address is changed from Wilmington, Ohio, to 65 West State street, Sharon, Pennsylvania.

Charles E. Skinner, M. E., has been elected president of the Westinghouse Veterans' Association.

J. B. Wilson, Chem., is co-author with Dr. Weber of the Animal Physiological Laboratory, Bureau of Chemistry, Washington, D. C., of a paper on "The Separation of Alkyl Amines in the Presence of Ammonia."

W. K. McIllyar, C. E. '18, working with Construction Company on river straightening in Columbus.

H. F. Yerges, A. E. '18, is draftsman with Clarke & Co., Columbus.

G. P. Graner, '18, is now in the engineering department, National Lamp Works, Cleveland.

L. H. Hart, C. E. '10, gave a lecture on "The Canal," December 9, before the Technology Club of Syracuse. He has been putting his knowledge into practice in the building of barges for the New York State Canals at the Ferguson Ship Yard, Buffalo.

Howard A. Levering, E. M., is county road engineer in Wayne county, West Virginia. His address is Ceredo, West Virginia.

R. R. Tittle, ex '20, is now draftsman for D. T. & I. R. R., Springfield, Ohio.

G. R. Leidigh, C. E. '17, is employed as assistant chief designer of steel structures, Penna. R. R., with office in Pittsburgh.

K. A. Rodebaugh is now draftsman with the Ohio Fuel and Supply Company, Columbus.

C. E. Jefferson, C. E. '18, is with the Barber Asphalt Company, covering the central states from Indianapolis.

R. F. McDowell, '09, is back in the Cleveland office of R. W. Pratt, consulting sanitary engineer, after spending a number of months at Camp Sherman on construction work.

J. R. McDermott, '17, is now assistant engineer in charge of state road work in the Harrison county surveyor's office.

C. L. Terzopolous is employed in maintenance of way department, Penna. Lines, Bradford, Ohio.

D. Russell Born is now assistant to superintendent Dayton-Wright Aeroplane Company, Dayton, Ohio.

C. S. Demos, '18, is drafting in the map department of the Ohio Fuel & Supply Company, Columbus.

John W. Bulger, '18, is now an instructor in Akron University, Akron, Ohio.

R. H. Halstead is now general road master for the Missouri Pacific Railroad at Falls City, Neb.

G. D. Scheuneman, ex '18, is an engineer for Hunkin-Conkey Company, U. S. Q. M. Department, Columbus.

F. H. Brown, ex '19, is engaged in valuation work for the T. & O. C. Railroad, working out of Columbus.

L. L. Markel, '18, is engaged as construction engineer with A. C. McGhee Construction Co., Cleveland.

Geo. H. Holman, ex '20, is engaged in valuation work for the D. T. & I. R. R., Springfield, Ohio.

M. A. Carter is now in the architect's office, State Board of Administration.

C. A. Treyens and H. F. Reichard are now working in the University architect's office, O. S. U.

R. F. Stockdale is in the city engineer's office, Columbus.

Lieutenant Harry D. Sheets, '15, of the 135th Aero Squadron, A. E. F., returned to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Sheets, 543 West Fifth avenue, Columbus, after many hazardous experiences as an aerial photographer.

DEATHS

Chas. E. Shoemaker, '18, April 13, 1919, (heart trouble), Cleveland avenue, Columbus.

Rolland P. Singer, '10, at Niagara Falls, December 16, 1918.

Geo. H. Harvey, C. E. '10, December 20, 1918, (influenza), Columbus, Ohio.

Paul V. Licht, C. E. '17, December 17, 1918, (pneu|monia), Denver, Colorado.
