The Mustangs Return

They won a year ago, 32 to 27

TWENTY-FOUR of the thirty-six Southern Methodist University Mustangs who helped defeat Ohio State 32 to 27 last year, in one of the nation's most thrilling games of all-time, are on the Pony team that is meeting the Buckeyes here today.

Included among the returning Mustangs is Fred Benners, the tall passer, who completed 19 of 34 aerials for 306 yards and four touchdowns last September.

Three of the six-pointers came in the last quarter and enabled the Ponies to overcome a 24-7 lead piled up by the well-balanced Ohio State attack.

Other veteran Methodists include the three captains—Herschel Forester, offensive guard and defensive tackle; Pat Knight, offensive full-back and defensive end and Dick Hightower, starting center on both offensive and defense. Also listed are H. N. Russell, Jr., Jimmy Hawn, and Ben White, each of whom caught a touchdown pass here last year.

Other returning Ponies who played against Ohio State in 1950 are Bill Rippey, Bill Bowden, and Bob Hooks, ends; Harry Dean, Wayne Ligon, Buford Partee and Bob Cadwallader, tackles; Ike Robb, Ralph Hendrickson, Hal Quinn and Earl Walden, guards, and Val Joe Walker, I. D. Russell, Bill Forester, Henry Stollenwerck and Benton Musslewhite, backs.

The Mustangs lost several of the men who helped them to achieve top national rank last October. Among those missing are Kyle Rote, all-America back and first man in the "pro" draft choice; Johnny Champion, who caught a 66-yard touchdown pass against the Buckeyes; Ray Cleckler, defensive half, who intercepted a Buckeye pass and ran it back 56 yards for a touchdown; two starting defensive guards, Charles Chambers and Bob Vann; two starting defensive tackles, Neal Franklin and Charles Perry; two starting offensive tackles, Bobby Collier and Jim Marion and several other first-line reserves.

Coach H. N. Russell, who is starting his second year as head coach of the Mustangs, expressed himself as being well-pleased with the showing made by the Ponies in spring drills.

Among the freshmen crop are six backs who will bear special note. The most outstanding are Bill Crisler and Jerry Norton. Gene Gillis, of El Paso, is certain to step in and rounding out the impressive sextet are Gayle Mills, Don Miller and Al Hanson.

The Mustangs opened their 1950 season by defeating Georgia Tech and met the same team last week before coming to Columbus for Ohio State's opener. A year ago, the Ponies won their first five games, defeating Missouri, Oklahoma Aggies and Rice after buckling the Buckeyes. Then they encountered two straight defeats at the hands of Texas and Texas A. & M. before defeating Arkansas. Like the Buckeyes, they lost their last two games of the season—to Baylor and Texas Christian.

Two weeks from today—Oct. 13, the Mustangs return to the mid-west area to meet Notre Dame at South Bend.

CARMEN OHIO

Words by Fred A. Cornell, '06
(Spanish Chant)

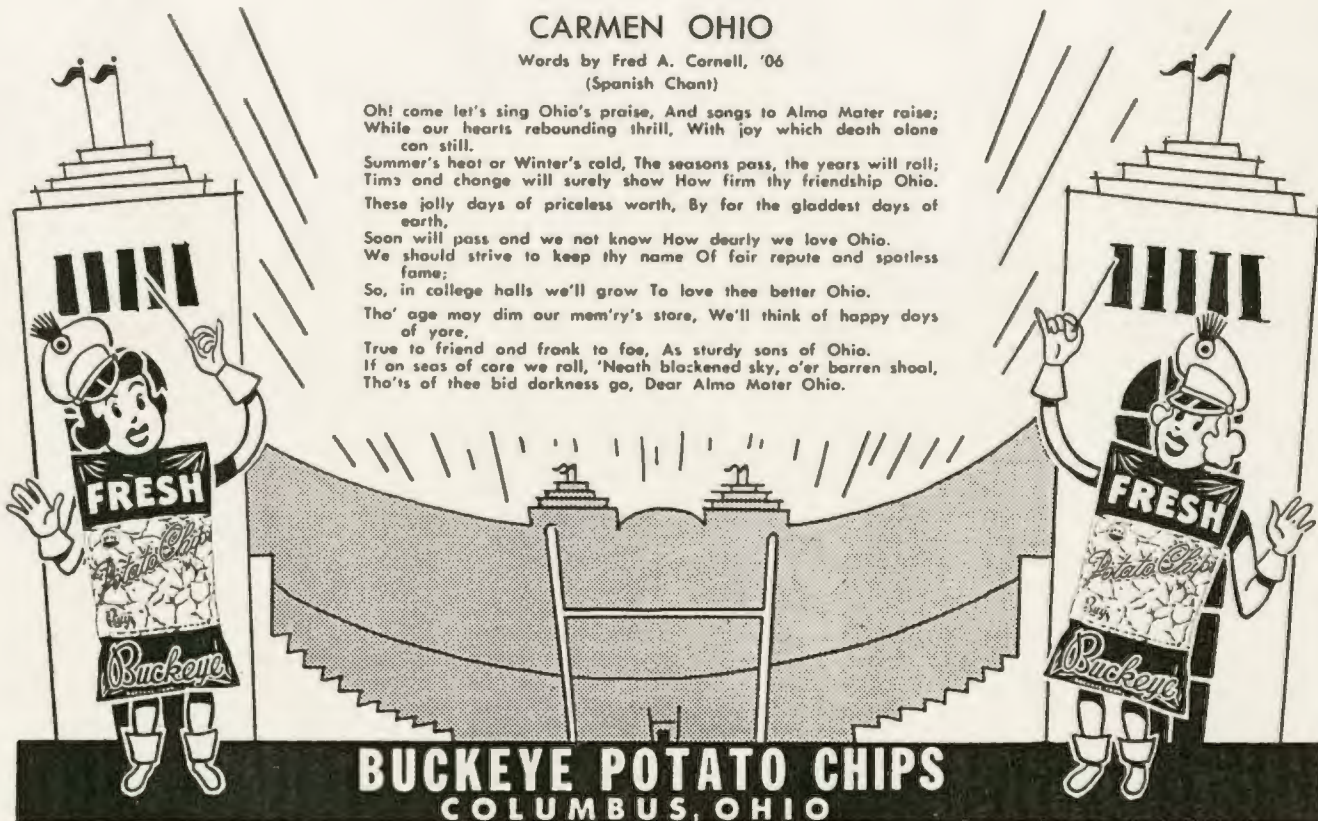

Oh! come let's sing Ohio's praise, And songs to Alma Mater raise;
While our hearts rebounding thrill, With joy which death alone can still.

Summer's heat or Winter's cold, The seasons pass, the years will roll;
Tims and change will surely show How firm thy friendship Ohio.
These jolly days of priceless worth, By far the gladdest days of earth,

Soon will pass and we not know How dearly we love Ohio.
We should strive to keep thy name Of fair repute and spotless fame;

So, in college halls we'll grow To love thee better Ohio.
Tho' age may dim our mem'ry's store, We'll think of happy days of yore,

True to friend and frank to foe, As sturdy sons of Ohio.
If an seas of care we roll, 'Neath blackened sky, o'er barren shoal, Tho'ts of thee bid darkness go, Dear Alma Mater Ohio.

"Woody" HAYES, The New Buckeye Head Coach

WAYNE WOODROW (WOODY) HAYES, New Ohio State University football coach, was born Feb. 14, 1913 at Clifton, near Springfield, Ohio. The family home is considered Newcomerstown, where his father, Wayne Benton Hayes, was school superintendent from 1920 until his death in 1929. Woody was on Newcomerstown high school's football, baseball and basketball teams, captaining the football team his senior year.

He is a 1935 graduate of Denison University. He majored in history and English, with a minor in physical education. He continued graduate work in physical education with summer sessions at Ohio State, completing the thesis for his master's degree in educational administration from Ohio State in 1948.

Hayes played three seasons at tackle for Denison and was an outfielder the only year Denison had intercollegiate baseball while he was in school. His first coaching job was at Mingo Junction High School, where he served as assistant football coach. The next year he moved to New Philadelphia, again serving as assistant grid mentor.

Hayes took over as head football coach at New Philadelphia in 1938. There he enjoyed two outstanding seasons, winning 18, losing one and tying another. He enlisted in the Navy in July of 1941, five months before Pearl Harbor.

Hayes was discharged as a lieutenant commander, having commanded the PC 1251 in the Palau Islands invasion, and the Destroyer Escort "Rinehart," in both Atlantic and Pacific operations.

Denison, his alma mater, which had discontinued football during the war, asked him back as head coach when it revived the sport in 1946. That was a tough season which saw several one-point losses and no victories until the final game. That win, however, started an 18-game winning streak, continuing through nine games in 1947 and eight in 1948. In 1949, Hayes moved to Miami University as head coach, where he ran the winstreak to 19.

Hayes' 1949 Miami team won five of nine. His 1950 team won eight of nine, established a new scoring record of 322 points, won the Mid-American Conference title and went on to a 34-21 Salad Bowl win over Arizona State.

In 1949, Miami ranked second among the nation's major colleges in pass defense. In 1950, the Redskins ranked second in total offense and third in passing offense.

Hayes' traits include virtually year-round, around-the-clock devotion to football. In teaching football, Hayes likes to combine the best points of both small-group work and squad spirit. Pre-drill skull sessions are referred to as "meetings". Hayes feels it sounds more business-like. They're brisk and to the point. If the entire squad is meeting together, he prefers a classroom-style setup with notebooks, blackboard and chairs. During practice, Hayes tries to keep free to watch and supervise the entire operation while having offense and defense drill separately, often by individual positions, under assistant coaches.

Hayes is a member of the Presbyterian Church. His professional associations include membership in the American Football Coaches Association and the National Education Association.
