THRU THE TRANSIT

With BARON DERRENBERGER

"Are you a doctor?" asked a young lady stepping into a drug store.

"Naw," replied the boy behind the service counter, "I'm just a fizzician."

The modern girl must be very much interested in geometry; she tries to make a triangle in every circle she's in.

Teacher: "Explain the difference between results and consequences."

Stoogent: "Results are what you expect; consequences are what you get."

Ashes are ashes, dust is dust;
If it weren't for paint, women would rust.

Hop-a-long: "It's raining cats and dogs outside."
Cassidy: "Yeh, I know, I just stepped into a poodle."

Old Lady on pleasure cruise: "Where is the Captain?"

First Mate: "The Captain is forward, Madam."

Old Lady: "So what, isn't this a pleasure trip?"

Chaser: "Give me your telephone number, Gretchen dear."

German Girl: "9999."

Chaser: "All right. Then don't."

An old fashioned girl blushes when she is embarrassed, but a modern femme is embarrassed when she blushes.

She: "Can I trust him?"

Sister: "Why, he's so crooked that the wool he pulls over your eyes is half cotton."

Wife (angrily to her drunken husband): "I suppose you came straight home from the office."

He: "Sure I did. (hic) I came home as the crow flies."

She: "So I see, stopping frequently for a little corn."

Six year old Mary awoke about 3 o'clock in the morning.

"Tell me a story, mamma," she pleaded.

"Hush, darling," said mother, "daddy will be in soon and tell us both one."

An acquaintance becomes a friend as soon as you discover that he has a sense of humor.

"Mr. Jones, Dad wants to borrow your corkscrew."

"All right, sonny," said Jones, reaching for his coat. "You run along home, I'll bring it over."

We think that he who laughs—lasts.

They say the face is the index of the mind.

Not always. Just because a girl's face is made up, her mind isn't.

"My dear," called a wife to her husband in the next room, "what are you opening that can with?"

"Why," he said, "with a can-opener. What did you think I was doing it with?"

"Well," replied his wife, "I thought from your remarks that you were opening it with a prayer."

Al in his examination paper where Norm had had had had had had had had had the examiner's approval.

Al, in his examination paper, where Norm had had "had," had had "had had." "Had had" had had the examiner's approval.

The Eskimo sleeps in his little bear skin
And sleeps very warm, we are told;
Last night I slept in my little bare skin,
And caught a helluva cold.

"Are you a college man?"

"No, an automobile just ran over my hat."
