Reception and Exhibition: “Roy Doty: Inspired Lines,” Billy Ireland Cartoon Library and Museum:

- Reception: Saturday, September 17, 3-4:30 p.m., Billy Ireland Cartoon Library & Museum Reading Room Gallery. Co-sponsored by the National Cartoonists Society Great Lakes Chapter. Open to the public. Refreshments will be served.
- Exhibit: September 19, 2011-January 6, 2012, Reading Room Gallery: The only artwork Roy Doty really cares about is the work that is currently on his drawing board. This is not to say that he does not enjoy looking at finished work. He takes great pride in what he has done. The fact is, however, that the act of creating now, in the present, brings him such pleasure and satisfaction that he cannot imagine doing anything else. For more details:

Update of Buckeye Alert System: Your cell phone number must be in Buckeye Link – and properly labeled – to remain part of the Buckeye Alert system after September 30, 2011. This will ensure that you receive any emergency messages in a timely manner. Buckeye Alert will only be used for emergency messages, and your cell phone number will not be publically available or distributed to outside organizations.

NOTE: It is important that you register your cell phone number in Buckeye Link even if you previously registered for the Buckeye Alert system.

To update your Buckeye Alert information:

- Log-in to Buckeye Link at <http://buckeyelink.osu.edu/>
- Select “My Student Center”
- Scroll to “Contact Information”
- Click on “Home Phone”
- Enter your cell phone area code and telephone number under Cellular
- Save

Plan now for student move-in traffic September 15 and 18: Student move-in to residence halls will affect campus traffic patterns on Thursday, September 15, and Sunday, September 18. On September 15, about 1,400 Ohio State Welcome Leaders (OWLs) will move in between 8 a.m. and 3 p.m., resulting in heavy traffic on streets near residence halls. On September 18, more than 5,000 students are expected, and central campus will be closed to all non-move-in traffic from 7 a.m. to 4 p.m. Faculty and staff are advised not to move their cars on the 15 and to avoid campus on the 18 if possible. Detailed information is available at <http://www.tp.osu.edu/alerts/studentmovein.shtml>

People

From Magda El-Sherbini: I would like to let you know that I completed my Fulbright grant and I returned home on Thursday, September 1. I started my regular duty as the Head of the Cataloging Department on Tuesday, September 6.

I would also like to take this opportunity to thank Sherab Chen, Coordinator of the Non-Roman Section for acting as Head of the Cataloging Department during my absence.

Best wishes,
Magda

Congratulations to Morag Boyd and Jenny Robb. Their proposal for an ARL SPEC survey on art and artifact collections was selected for the 2012 SPEC survey cycle. The selection process is a very competitive one; their proposal was only one of six selected, from a total of 27 submissions.

LaTina Franks, right, with a familiar special guest at her recent retirement party. LaTina concluded her Libraries career August 31.

Exhibits

Fruits of Devotion
September 7-December 30
Thompson Library Gallery

Over time, due to fires and natural disasters, conflicts and wars, as well as attrition, many manuscripts and other cultural treasures of Slavic Eastern Christianity were lost. Those that remain, together with a shared heritage of alphabets, literature, religious practice, iconography, music, architecture, among others, unite many of the Slavic peoples and nations.

This exhibit celebrates the approaching 30th anniversary of the founding of the Hilandar Research Library and Curator Predrag Matejic's 40th year of preservation and research of medieval Slavic manuscripts.
