“2020 Vision” Lecture, Monday, December 3, Faculty Club Grand Lounge, 3:30 p.m. (reception/refreshments at 3:15 p.m.): Juan R. I. Cole, Professor of History and President of the American Global Institute for the University of Michigan, is the guest speaker at third program in the current series, “2020 Vision: The Future of Scholarship and Publishing.” Sponsored by The Ohio State University Libraries and Technology Enhanced Learning and Research (TELRL), and supported by the Friends of the Libraries.

Two Intranet Focus Group Sessions Remain: Communications and the Web Implementation Team are beginning work to revamp the Libraries’ staff intranet (staff internet site). In order to get input on the usability of the present site, content and services that could be added (or removed), and tools that could enhance individual units’ operations, two focus groups are being offered November 28. (There will also be an online survey for anyone who can’t attend the meetings but wishes to contribute their ideas.) The sessions are set for:

- Wednesday, November 28, 10-11:30 a.m., Ackerman 5811: Specifically intended for administrative, Support and Technical Services faculty and staff members.
- Wednesday, November 28, 12:30-2 p.m., SEL 070: Specifically intended for public services staff and faculty.

If you plan to attend, please email Larry Allen. Call Larry, 2-8999, or Russell Schelby, 2-0961.

“2020 Vision” Lecture, Thursday, November 29, Faculty Club Grand Lounge, 3:30 p.m. (reception/refreshments at 3:15 p.m.): Nancy Eaton, Dean of Libraries and Scholarly Communications, and Sanford Thatcher, University Press Director, both of Pennsylvania State University, are the guest speakers at this second lecture program in the current series, “2020 Vision: The Future of Scholarship and Publishing.” The series explores issues of scholarship and publishing in the digital age with national leaders in digital scholarship. The series is sponsored by The Ohio State University Libraries and Technology Enhanced Learning and Research (TELRL), and supported by the Friends of the Libraries.

Lectures

“Sharing, Privacy and Trust in our Networked Lives,” Cathy De Rosa, Vice President for the Americas and Global Vice President of Marketing for OCLC, Friday, December 14, 12:30-3 p.m., Ackerman Library, Room 5826: Cathy will lead what is expected to be a lively discussion on the recent OCLC report, “Sharing, Privacy and Trust in our Networked Lives.” Cathy joined OCLC in 2001. Prior to joining OCLC, she served on the faculty of the Fisher College of Business, Ohio State University, where she taught e-business marketing. From 1994 to 2000, she was a Vice President at Symix Systems, an enterprise technology company serving manufacturing and service companies. Prior to joining Symix, she was a Senior Consultant with Price Waterhouse, serving technology companies in Boston, Massachusetts, and San Jose, California. She also has held management positions at Micro Card Technologies and Texas Instruments. Cathy received a bachelor’s degree in accounting from the University of Arizona and a master’s of business administration degree from the Harvard Business School.

Training Opportunities

Click!: Have you heard of social networking or del.icio.us and wondered what it actually means? Why are people talking about Facebook and blogs, and why do we need to know about what students are doing with them? How can this be relevant to your daily work, and why should you care?

OSUL offers a 5-part training course on these technologies and applications for library employees, faculty and staff. Click here for the full list of sessions. Register today! Questions? Contact Rebekah Kilzer

Guo-qing Li received a spot bonus for his work as chair of an ad hoc OhioLINK task force that advised CIRM and OhioLINK Tom Sanville regarding Wanfang Data's electronic journal collection. Guo-qing's leadership was essential to connecting OhioLINK with Wanfang, serving as an intermediary and, ultimately, at Tom Sanville's direction, convening the ad hoc task force, conducting the analyses, and compiling and issuing the task force's recommendation within its three-week deadline.

Exhibits

Faculty Recognition Book Exhibit

Through December 17

Sullivant Library

The Faculty Recognition Book Exhibit features some of the books selected by Ohio State University faculty granted tenure or promotion in 2007/08. The 152 honorees, including regular and clinical faculty from all OSU campuses, chose a title to be book-plated in their name in recognition of their accomplishments. A commemorative program listing the honorees, books selected, and personal statements of why the book was significant to them are available adjacent to the exhibit in the Leisure Reading room at the Sullivant Library. The diversity of titles selected represents the breadth of expertise of The Ohio State University faculty and the scope of their teaching and research. For more information, contact distel.1@osu.edu.

The Artist/Computer Collaboration: The Lillian Feldman Schwartz Collection

Through December 14

Faculty Club

Lillian Schwartz is widely recognized as one of the most significant figures in the development of what is now routinely referred to as “computer art.” The exhibition offers a sampling of the wide range of Schwartz’s works. The focus is primarily on two-dimensional works—early paintings and collages dating to before her work with computers began, through works from 1968 to the present done on the computer.

Rarities: Unusual Works from the Caniff Collection

Through January 19, 2008

Cartoon Research Library

Milton Caniff was a saver, and he was the son of a saver. As a result, the Milton Caniff Collection, the founding collection of The Ohio State University Cartoon Research Library, is enormous - nearly 12,000 original artworks by Caniff, 85 boxes of memorabilia, and more than 450 boxes of manuscript materials, fan letters, and business records. This exhibition celebrates the richness of the Caniff Collection and provides insight into the work, friendships, and influence of one of the 20th century's great cartoonists. In addition to work by Caniff, several drawings of Caniff by Noel Sickles, a fan letter from Mort Walker when he was 13, and an oil painting of General George Patton by Bill Mauldin are among the items on display.

The Little Black Dress: A Fashion Icon

Through May 10, 2008

Historic Costume & Textiles Collection

Is anything more iconic or versatile than the little black dress? Sixty of the collection’s little black dresses will be on display through May 10, 2008. The Little Black Dress exhibition illustrates its namesake’s many facets from its beginnings in the late 1920’s through the end of the 20th century. Dresses range from the classy and eternal cocktail dresses from the 50’s and 60’s to the funky styles of the days of disco. Classic pieces that echo the timeless sentiments of Audrey Hepburn in Sabrina and Breakfast at Tiffany’s are featured alongside eclectic pieces, such as the dress featuring a design of the Eiffel Tower fashioned from silver buttons by Patrick Kelly, the first African American to show in Paris. Many of these dresses are created by some of fashion’s most well-known and respected names including Christian Dior, Oscar de la Renta, Calvin Klein, and Chanel, the designer credited with “inventing” the little black dress. Two are creations from the minds of Irene Lentz Gibbons and Gilbert Adrian who made their reputations designing for MGM in Hollywood’s golden years. The exhibition is located on campus in Campbell Hall’s Geraldine Schottenstein Wing at 1787 Neil Avenue. Bucks for Charity Update: We will have two drawings this week for the Bucks for Charity Drive. The latest winner is Ed Plunkett and he wins a free pizza from Donato's. Congratulations Ed! We will also have a drawing this Friday so get your donations in by 5 p.m. to be eligible for the next drawing. We still have a way to go to reach our goal of $15,000. Currently we are at $11,790. There are many worthwhile charities that need help so if you have not yet made your contribution and plan to make one, there is still time. Go to <http://hr.osu.edu/special/ccdresourceguide.pdf> for the complete list of charities. Thanks!
