

Opening Program—100 Stillman Hall

9 am Welcome and Awards

President E. Gordon Gee, Dean William Meezan, PhD Program Director Theresa Early

9:30 am Keynote Address—Dr. Jeffrey Jenson, University of Denver

The Phillip D. and Eleanor G. Winn Professor of Children and Youth at Risk and Associate Dean for Research at the Graduate School, University of Denver

Prevention Science and Adolescent Problem Behavior: Advances and Opportunities

10:30-10:45 Break

Doctoral Research Presentations

10:45-12:30

Session 1

100 Stillman Hall

Hee Young Kim, PhD., Louisiana State University (2008)

"The Effects of Children's Perceptions of Attachment Security and Emotion Regulation on School Disengagement among Elementary School Truants"

Phyllis Platt, PhD., University of Kentucky (2008)

"Promoting Change Through a School-Based Model of Comprehensive Student and Family Support: Kentucky's Family Resource and Youth Services Centers"

Dr. Dawn Anderson-Butcher, Respondent

Hilary Drew, Moderator

Session 2

145 Stillman Hall

A. Tyler Perry, PhD., University of Washington (2008)

"'HIV' is in All of Us: Contagious Communication and the Production of Viral Knowledge"

R. Thomas Sherba, PhD., Case Western Reserve University (2009)

"Associations Among Violence Exposure, Mental Disorder, SUD and HIV"

Dr. Randi Love, Respondent

Natasha Mendoza, Moderator

Session 3

240 Stillman Hall

David Kondrat, PhD., The Ohio State University (2008)

"Expanding Understanding of Mental Health Recovery: Effects of Stigma and Working Alliance on the Quality of Life of Persons with Severe Mental Disabilities Receiving Community-Based Case Management Services"

Christina Studts, PhD., University of Louisville (2008)

"Improving Screening for Externalizing Behavior Problems among Very Young Children in Primary Care: Applications of Item Response Theory"

Dr. Joe Guada, Respondent

Chris Locke, Moderator

Session 4

245 Stillman Hall

Khushmand Rajendran, PhD., University at Albany (2008)

"Impact of Relationship with the Caregiver and Positive Future Expectations on Behavioral and Emotional Resilience in Adolescents in Child Welfare"

Christine Norton, PhD., Loyola University Chicago (2007)

"Understanding the Impact of Wilderness Therapy on Adolescent Depression and Psychosocial Development"

Dr. Cynthia Fontanella, Respondent

Noelle Fields, Moderator

Continuing Education Units

- Verification of Attendance (VOA) Forms are available at the registration desk
- Please return signed VOA forms to a volunteer at the registration desk
Volunteers will prepare your certificate.
You must include your license number.
- Signatures—Please obtain signatures immediately following presentations
Keynote—Volunteers at the Registration Desk
Sessions—Session Moderators and Assistants

Class Sign-In Sheets

- Class sign-in sheets are available at the student registration desk in the main lobby in front of 100 Stillman Hall.

Ph.D. Program Office

440 Stillman Hall
1947 College Road
Columbus, Ohio 43210

<http://www.csw.ohio-state.edu>

Phone: 614-292-6188

Fax: 614-292-6940

Email: nakayama.7@osu.edu

COLLEGE OF SOCIAL WORK