

How to Use the Bibliography

Each Bibliography entry contains the information listed below. After the location of the article has been specified, a summary sentence has been provided which contains a brief statement of its contents. Search terms highlight key topics covered by the work, and are cross-referenced with the search term index in this issue. Entries without an author's name are listed first in the Bibliography, followed by all other entries, listed alphabetically by the last name of the author.

Sample Entry

Johnson, Roger L. "A Lawyer's Introduction to Effective Arbitration" (book review) The Columbus Lawyer June, 1989 V.17 N.6 p. 5/c. 1 The author reviews the latest publication in a series of handbooks on dispute resolution techniques, and while he finds it to be a useful guide for the novice attorney, he questions its usefulness for dispute resolution professionals. ARB: BINDING ARB- GENERAL/ ARB: SERVING AS ARBITRATOR/ INST NATURE: JUSTICE SYSTEM-GENERAL/ TYPE OF SOURCE: BOOK REVIEW/ ROLE OF LAWYERS

Key

Author's name (if given).....Johnson, Roger L.
Title of article....."An Introduction to Effective Mediation"
Additional information.....(book review)
Name of journal.....The Columbus Lawyer
Date of publication.....June, 1989
Volume number.....V.17
Issue number.....N.6
Page number.....p. 5

Page numbers may also be designated as p. 45(3), indicating that the article begins on page 45 and covers 3 pages.

Column number.....c. 1
Summary sentence.....The author reviews the latest publication...
Search terms.....ARB: BINDING
ARB- GENERAL, ARB: SERVING AS ARBITRATOR, INST
NATURE: JUSTICE SYSTEM-GENERAL, TYPE OF SOURCE:
BOOK REVIEW, ROLE OF LAWYERS

