The Journal of Amish and Plain Anabaptist Studies welcomes manuscripts, both theoretical and empirical, about plain Anabaptist groups, including Amish, Apostolic Christian, Brethren, Bruderhof, Hutterite, Russian Mennonite, Swiss Mennonite, and related movements. Under normal circumstances, the manuscript should be no more than 10,000 words, including tables, figures, endnotes, and references. The journal further seeks to include the empirical research of members from plain Anabaptist churches, who are invited to submit manuscripts for special consideration. Citation and referencing style is similar to the American Journal of Sociology (<http://www.jstor.org/page/journal/amerjsoci/instruct.html>).

Given the multi-disciplinary nature of our subject matter, authors may request to use the Chicago Manual of Style (Turbian) when the above style would force an unnatural fit. A bibliography is still required.
