a canoe tips.

The three degrees in medical treatment: Positive—ill. Comparative—pill. Superlative—bill.

Is your dentist a careful dentist?
Sure! He filled my teeth with great pains.

How much of that cheese did you eat?
The hole of it.

A student called at a boarding house to inquire about rooms.

"And how much do you charge for your rooms," he asked.

"Five dollars up," was the reply.

"Yes, but I'm a student," he said, thinking the price
a little too high.

"That being the case, the price is five dollars down."

Shoes Shined Inside.

1910—Son, how often must I tell you it's bad manners to dip your bread in the gravy.

1936—Yes, father, but it is good taste.

A young man at college named Breeze
Weighted down with B. A.'s and Lit. D's, Collapsed from the strain.
Said his doctor, "It's plain
You are killing yourself by degrees."

Active—Who laid the table for breakfast this morning?

Pledge—I did, all but the eggs.

My dear man, I am losing my memory.
Oh, forget it.

He—See that man playing fullback? He'll be our best man in about a week.

She—Oh, this is so sudden.

Math. Prof.—If there are forty-eight states in the Union, and super-heated steam equals the distance from Bombay to Paris, what is my age?

Frosh—Forty-four, sir.

Prof.—Correct, how did you prove that?

Frosh—Well, I have a brother who is twenty-two and he is only half nuts.

Professor (to mother of freshman): Your son has a great thirst for knowledge. Where does he get it?

Mother: He gets the knowledge from me and the thirst from his father.
