Notes of Interest

Noon Entertainment Series Features Double Bass - An unusual concert featuring Mark Bernat on double bass is planned for Tuesday at noon. The double bass is rarely thought of as a solo instrument, the concert will highlight the subtle strengths of the instrument. Bernat, a seasoned musician who has performed with orchestras all over the world, will perform a variety of pieces. Lima native, Tony Patterson, will accompany Bernat. The forty-five minute concert will be held in room 160 of Reed Hall.

Lazarus credit applications still available - The Lima Campus Student Senate will again be offering Lazarus credit card applications on Tuesday April 18 and Wednesday April 19 in Cook Hall and in the Tech Education Lab from 10:00am to 1:00pm. Please help support the Lima Campus Student Senate.

Can't Find the Video Games? - Due to a space crunch in the Galvin Commons, the video machines are now located in the Galvin Student Lounge. Check them out!!

OSU College Success Series to Begin - Take advantage of some free programs to help you with your studies. The College Success Seminar Series, which has been delayed in starting, will include sessions on time management, goal setting, note-taking, and more. All sessions are free, and you need not attend all of the programs.

OSU Freshman Forgiveness Deadline Approaches - The last day for OSU students to use the Freshman Forgiveness Rule is Monday, April 17. Contact your advisor for more information.

Lima Child Abuse Series Continues - Dr. John Christoff, ONU College of Law, moderate a panel discussion on children's rights during the free program "Do Children Have Rights?" on Tues. April 18. The panel will include a representative from the Children's Defense Fund-Ohio, a school administrator, and a high school student. The program begins at 7:30pm in the Exhibit Hall of the Veteran's Memorial Civic Center.

May Week Plans Underway - The Social Activities Board, along with the Athletics Department and various student organizations, is about to announce the wild schedule of spring events for May 8-13, 1989. Soon each building will have a wall of information about May Week. This week is a chance for all students, faculty, and staff to meet one another, try their hand at an event, and to enjoy the Spring weather. Definite plans to put on your calendars include a Concert and Chicken BBQ on May 10, and the Battle of the Bands (rock-n-roll) on May 13.

Parking Alert - If you haven't already heard or seen... the tow trucks are now clearing all fire lanes during the day. Several students have learned the hard way that towing is underway; a $30.00 impound charge and the inconvenience of going across town to find your car is no fun. An expanded parking lot is being created, try to arrive a little earlier for classes and you should find a LEGAL parking spot.

Hispanic Awareness Concert in Columbus - April 17-23 is Hispanic Awareness Week at OSU- Columbus. A concert of all Spanish music, performed by George Haddad on piano, is planned for April 23 at 3pm in Weigel Hall. The concert is free.

Planning to Attending Main Campus Next Fall? - All OSU students who are readying for the move to Columbus should plan to participate in Campus Change Day on May 5. More information will be available next week, stay tuned...

Coming Next Week - Pulitzer Prize winning Poet, Henry Taylor, will read his works on Wednesday, April 26 from 12-1pm in RH160. April 28-30 is the Annual Black Swamp Dulcimer Festival. This is one of the best folk music festivals in the nation. Two types of instruments, the mountain dulcimer and the hammered dulcimer, are highlighted. Concerts are planned for Saturday, and Sunday. For ticket information, contact Dr. Susan Porter in Reed Hall.
