

The Knowledge Bank at The Ohio State University
Ohio State Engineer

Title: Cranks and Countershafts

Issue Date: Oct-1927

Publisher: Ohio State University, College of Engineering

Citation: Ohio State Engineer, vol. 11, no. 1 (October, 1927), 20-21.

URI: <http://hdl.handle.net/1811/34253>

Appears in Collections: Ohio State Engineer: Volume 11, no. 1 \(October, 1927\)

WANTED TO BE CURED

Those who object, like the negro in this story, to the high fees of a good physician, do not always realize what they are paying for. The doctor in question was called out to attend an unknown patient. When he arrived, he found that a decrepit negro wanted his attention.

The sick man first asked, "Huw much yo' cha'ge, Doctah?"

"Five dollars a visit," said the other, and when the negro had gasped his surprise, he continued, "that includes, you know, my time, experience, advice, and the medicine."

"A pore old niggah like me don't need all dem extras," remarked the patient, "just give me ten cents wo'th of yo' cough med'cine, an' dat's enough fo' me."

Little Boy: "May I come in your yard and get my arrow?"

Neighbor: "Yes, where did it fall?"

Boy: "I think it's stuck in your cat."

Head Barber: "Well, Tony, you're late for work again. Wotsa big idea, huh?"

Tony: "Boss, itsa like this. I starta shave before I leave da house. And firsta theeng you know, I talk myself into a shampoo and a massage."

On a farm in South Georgia is posted this sign: "Trespasser's will be persecuted to the full exten of 2 mean mongrel dorgs which ain't never ben ovarly soshibal with stranger's and 1 dubble barrel shotgun which ain't loaded with no sofy pillers. Dam, if I ain't getting tired of this hel raisin on my proputy."

At a railroad siding a man asked the foreman if there was a vacancy.

"What can you do?" asked the foreman.

"Anything," replied the man.

"All right," answered the foreman, "take this oil can and oil the points and crossings up the line."

After an absence of three days the foreman received a telegram which read: "Dear Sir: Arrived at Detroit. Please forward more oil."

FACE THE MUSIC

"I would be glad," said the clergyman, after he had given out the text for his sermon, "if the young man who is standing outside the door would come in and make absolutely certain whether she is here to-night or not. That would be a great deal better than opening the door half an inch or so and thereby exposing the necks of the people in the back row to a current of cold air."

A GOOD EXAMPLE

Soph Engineer (to frat brother): "Bill, can you help me with this mechanics problem?"

Junior Frat Brother: "If I did that it wouldn't be quite right."

Soph: "No, I don't think it would, Bill; but take a try at it anyway."

He: "Is your husband a traveling man?"

She: "Yes, sir; but I don't go out with strangers, and besides I have a date for tonight."

George wanted to propose to a young lady, but he didn't know just how to go about it. He took her for a walk in the cemetery. Coming to a large tomb, he said: "Barbara, my dear, all my folks are buried here. Wouldn't you like to be buried here, too?"

DANGEROUS CURVE AHEAD

Aunt: "Aren't you ever afraid you'll lose control of your car?"

Daredevil Nephew: "Constantly—I'm two installments behind already."

POOR OLD U. S.

A small boy was taken by his father to Washington to visit Congress. He was much interested in the chaplain, who always opened the sessions with a prayer. Both in the Senate and the House he had observed this procedure. Finally he asked:

"Papa, why does the minister come in every day and pray for Congress?"

"You've got it all wrong, son," replied his father. "The minister comes in every day, looks over Congress, and then prays for the country."

NO LUCK

"I don't have much hope for my nephew at college," says J. Fuller Gloom. "He failed to make the team, he failed to make the dramatic club, he failed to make his grades, he failed to make the glee club, he failed to make the right fraternity, and now he's failed in an attempt at suicide."

A tourist had stopped for the night at a mountaineer's cabin up in the Smokies and noticed four holes in the door—

Tourist: "Friend, I don't want to be too inquisitive, but what are the four holes in your door for?"

Mountaineer: "Wall, yo' see I has four cats."

Tourist: "But wouldn't one big hole do for all four cats?"

Mountaineer: "Hell, when I say Scat! I mean Scat."

“SANDY”
WILLIAMS

and his Orchestra

“The Sweethots of the Campus”

Bob Hansel, Mgr.
UNiversity 8226-J

Rythm Music
for Engineers and others—
and how!

The Style Shop

S. E. Corner 11th and High Street

New Fall Oxfords $5 and $6

Where the Well Dressed
Man Buys His Apparel

*Newest in Ties $1.00
Smartest in Fall Suits, Hats,
Caps and Shirts
Union Suits
and Shoes*

Counselors of Fashion
Most Reliable

RENT A NEW TYPEWRITER--

Special Rates to Students

RIDER'S PEN SHOP

1836 North High Street

At the College Book Store

Take a box of Hennick's Delicious Chocolate

Nut Bars home to eat while you study

—you will find them on sale
at the cake shop

BALL ROOM

Now Available for Private Dances, Card Parties,
Luncheons and Dinners

BARBER SHOP

and Billiard Room
in the Basement

HENNICK'S RESTAURANT

At the Gate of the Campus

1824 North High Street