Notes of Interest

Clubs set quarter's meeting schedule: Many of the Student Organizations have scheduled weekly meeting times, check the schedule above for times and locations! New members and interest is always welcome! If you need more information, stop by the Student Activities Office (GA 015 B & C) and ask Carole or Frank.

Assistance for students confronting learning difficulties available: Jeannette Carter, campus Learning Disabilities Specialist, will be on campus Mondays (12-5), Tues, Thurs, and Fri. (8 a.m. - 1 p.m.) Students who are having problems comprehending course information, may be tested for a disability and then may receive special assistance. Ms. Carter's office is located on the GA 4th floor (420-D).

Baron Varsity Club sponsors road trip to see OSU Women Buckeyes play: Join other Lima Campus students, faculty, staff, and BVC members to see the Women Buckeyes play Wisconsin on Sunday, Jan. 24. Tip-off is at 2 p.m., so the vans will leave Lima earlier. Cost for the trip (including ticket and transportation) is $5--BVC member, $7 non-member. Space is limited, and deadline TUES., Jan. 19--so contact the Athletics Office (CK 105) as soon as possible.

Lunch Series features Jazz on Thursday: The Noon Entertainment Series has taken a new name--LIMA CAMPUS LUNCH SERIES. The series will continue to offer a variety of musical, literary, topical, and artistic programs from 12-1.

This week's program will feature the Crandall Trio--three talented jazz musicians from Findlay, Ohio. The program will include jazz renditions of Chamber Music such as Bach's Harpsichord Concerto. The concert will be held on Thursday from 12-1 in the Auditorium.

Campus Ministry starts student group: New Directions is a newly-forming group of students on the Lima Campus. Organizational meetings will be held on Wednesday at 12 and 2 in GA 245. Your ideas, input, and direction are welcome. Check the Campus Ministry Bulletin Board, (Galvin Hall 1st floor beside the elevators) for more details.

Auditions for the upcoming campus production planned: Theatre Director Kevin Hayes will schedule auditions for the March production of TO BE YOUNG, GIFTED, AND BLACK, during the week of January 25. The play which chronicles the life of Lorraine Hansberry, will feature a mixed cast ranging in age from High School to Older age. A minimum of 8 cast members will be needed.

Campus Leaders to meet Tuesday: Presidents of the Lima Campus Student Organizations will meet from 12-1 Tuesday in GA 236. Topic of discussion will be "Personalities within a group". Hints for working with different people will be discussed.

Bake Sales on Tuesday and Thursday: The campus cheerleaders will sponsor a Bake Sale on Tuesday morning in the Galvin Lobby. The Minority Student Union will offer baked goods for sale on Thursday morning in both Galvin and Cook Halls.

Sports

Congratulations to both the OSU-LTC Men's and Women's Basketball teams for winning the Baron Classic. The men beat Wright State-Lake in the finals with a score of 99-91. The women sneaked by Clark Tech in overtime to win with a score of 79-76. The MVPs of the tournament were Dave Kurt (OSU-LTC) for the men and Lynette Jones (OSU-LTC) for the women.

Reminder to those who are planning to attend the ski trip to Sugar Loaf Mountain. Your money is due by Thursday, January 20.

Intramurals, Intramurals, and more Intramurals: All winter quarter sports will begin this week. Events include bowling, handball, badmitten, indoor soccer, and basketball. Take advantage of the warm climate in the gym and get involved in these sports.
