

The Society for Disability Studies

The Society for Disability Studies is a nonprofit scientific and educational organization. It is a multidisciplinary and international organization composed of social scientists, scholars in the humanities, and disability rights advocates concerned with the problems of disabled people in society. The purpose of the Society is to bring together people from diverse backgrounds to share ideas and to engage in dialogues that cut across disciplinary backgrounds and substantive concerns. The Society is committed to developing theoretical and practical knowledge about disability and to promoting the full and equal participation of persons with disabilities in society.

Further information on membership and the annual meeting can be obtained by TTY or voice at 972-883-4122. Subscriptions can be obtained by the exchange of newsletters and/or publications relating to disability.

Please specify if you wish to receive the Quarterly by email or on diskette (IBM compatible ASCII, 3 1/2", high density). There is no additional cost for an alternative format.

Checks for subscriptions should be made out to the Disability Studies Quarterly and sent to the Society for Disability Studies, School of Social Sciences, University of Texas at Dallas, Box 830688, Mail Station GR3.1, Richardson, Texas 75083-0688.

The Samuel Gridley Howe Library in Waltham, Massachusetts, is the repository for past issues of Disability Studies Quarterly. The papers and books of Irving Kenneth Zola as well as the books, papers, and manuscripts of Rosemary and Gunnar Dybwad are also deposited there. Bonnie Stecher is the librarian at the Howe Library. The Library is available for research into all aspects of disability.

Past issues of Disability Studies Quarterly are available for $7.00 each. Please specify the theme of the issue and the volume and issue number. Your request with a check made out to Friends of the Howe Library should be mailed to Howie Baker, MS #044, Brandeis University, P.O. Box 9110, Waltham, MA 02254-9110. The Winter issue of each volume is on general disability issues. The subject matter of available past issues can be found at the SDS web site: <<http://www.wipd.com/sds>>.
