Notes of Interest

Down & Out in Beverly Hills: The Social Activities Board will sponsor two showings of this 1986 hit starring Richard Dreyfuss, Bette Midler, and Nick Nolte. The movie will be shown at 12 noon and 6 pm. in the SAB Auditorium (theatre sound and screen). Cost for students, faculty, and staff is just $.50.

Auditions for "Plaza Suite" offered: The OSU Theatre will hold auditions for the winter quarter production on January 12 & 13 from 3-4pm and 7-8pm in the SAB Auditorium. Cast will include: seven males and five females. Scripts are available in SAB 130.

Photo processing available from Bookstore: The OSU Bookstore now offers film developing service. Just drop off film and 1-2 days later the prints will be returned to campus. Check with the Bookstore management for prices and details.

YMCA needs a lifeguard: Attention all early rising, energetic responsible lifeguards! The YMCA needs a supervisor for the lap swim 6-8am. Contact Russ McHenry at the Y - 223-6045.

Attention Civic Minded Individuals: United Way will celebrate its 100th Anniversary this year and is in need of individuals to assist with promotion and leadership. Applicants need to be strong public speakers, interested in the United Way "idea", and available to participate in a Young Leaders Conference to be held in Washington, D.C. in April. Applications are available from the Student Senate in GA 015C. Deadline for completed applications is Jan. 19, 1987.

Can the human body be sculpture? Be sure to visit the photography exhibit available in SAB 160 entitled "Figure As Sculptural Form". This collection of photos by Nickolas Muray is provided by the George Eastman House Museum of Photography. Viewing is available:

Mon. (12), Tues. (13), Thurs. (14)

Friday (16) - 11am - 1pm

Tues. - Fri. (20-23)

Baron Varsity Invites Students to Ice Hockey: This Friday the Baron Varsity Club travels to Columbus for college hockey at its best. See the Buckeyes take on nationally ranked Bowling Green Falcons. It starts at 7:30. Ticket and transportation cost is $15 for Varsity Club members; $17 for non-members. Join the action! Contact John Stroia ext. 281 or Thom Sinn ext. 408 for further details. GO BUCKS!

Martin Luther King Day: Remember, next Monday is a holiday. NO CLASSES ON JAN. 19!!!!

Student Senate to Meet: The next open meeting of the Senate will be Tues. Jan. 20, 1987 at 4pm. Location will be announced. Come see what the Senate is doing and share your ideas.

Noon Series to Begin: The first noon series program will feature Intuition Theatre Company on TUESDAY, Jan. 20 at 12 NOON in SAB 160. The program will feature three very talented mimes who combine background music, comedy and lots of physical expression to entertain everyone. The "Lemon Sisters", as they are called, will provide a cabaret of fun.

Social Activities Board still needs interested members: The next meeting of the S.A.B. is Tuesday, Jan. 13 at 3pm. in GA 066. Come and help plan movies and the upcoming all-night fun night on campus.

Basketball Season is definitely underway! Over the holidays the Men's team won the Baron Classic that was held on Jan 2 & 3: the women's team finished in second place. Teams involved in the classic included: Wright State-Celina, Clark Tech (women), Ancilla College (men), Edison State, and our campus team. Current records are: Men 11-5 (5-1 conf.) Women 5-6 (1-4 conf.)
