

National Marine Educators Association 1986 Annual Conference

August 4-9, John Carroll University, Cleveland, Ohio

"Those Magnificent Sweetwater Seas"

The Great Lakes are a valuable resource when used properly, and correct usage comes from knowledge and understanding. The National Marine Educators Association is in the business of spreading the word to educators and the populace about the importance of water throughout the world.

For registration information, contact:

OSU Department of Conferences and Institutes
Fawcett Center for Tomorrow
2400 Olentangy River Road
Columbus, Ohio 43210-1027
(614) 422-8571

Preliminary Schedule

Monday, Aug. 4th

- Board of Directors meeting
- President's reception for local officials and Board members

Tuesday, Aug. 5th

- Sea Grant Education meetings
- Initial meetings of graduate credit workshops
- Curriculum exhibits open
- Perch & Pickerel Party; Songs of the Seas and Lakes

Wednesday, Aug. 6th

- Keynote address by Lee Botts, Northwestern University, and the Hon. James Bradley, Ontario Minister of the Environment
- Great Lakes Symposium for Educators and Communicators
- Concurrent sessions on aspects of marine and aquatic education
- Evening cruise on the Cuyahoga River and Lake Erie

Thursday, Aug. 7th

- Morning - Special workshop sessions
- Afternoon - Field trips to North Shore sites
- All day workshop at Old Woman Creek National Estuarine Sanctuary
- Commercial exhibits open
- Evening - Lake Erie wine reception and auction of aquatic items

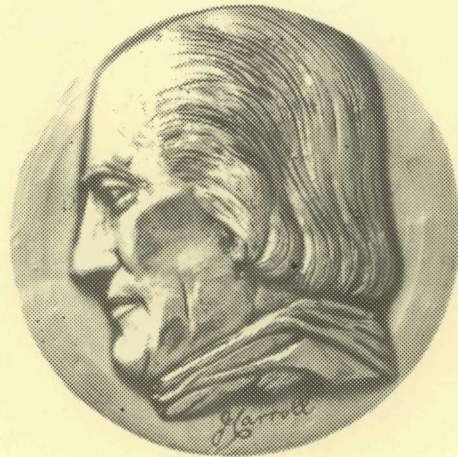

Friday, Aug. 8th

- Concurrent sessions
- Curriculum materials workshops
- NMEA business meeting
- Behind the scenes at Sea World
- Barbecue dinner at Sea World

Saturday, Aug. 9th

- Culmination of graduate credit workshops
- Begin post-conference field trips
- Depart for home ports

John Carroll University
1886-1986

Mr. Daniel William Hehr
Muskingum Area Tech College
1555 Newark Road
Zanesville OH 43701