Notes of Interest

Stephen King Horror Movie Scheduled: Stephen King's Children of the Corn will be shown on Tuesday at 1pm in GA 015 (Student Lounge). Admission is only $.50 or FREE if you have a button or keyring from the Social Activities Board.

Student Senate Invites Students to Monthly Meetings: Do you feel in the dark about campus operations and activities? By attending the monthly Senate meetings you can be up-to-date on policy changes, new programs and new ideas for the campus. The Senate meets this week on Thursday at 4pm in S.A.B. 102.

Education Majors Alert...: The S.N.E.A. will meet on Friday at noon in GA432. A guest speaker will discuss Interviewing. All SNEA members and elementary education majors are encouraged to attend.

Dr. Bob Sedoris Directs Candide in Columbus: Join students, faculty and staff and see Leonard Bernstein's theatre production of Candide. For just $15.00 your transportation, theatre ticket and dinner are provided. When is this? Sat., Feb. 28 leaving campus at 11 am and arriving back by 8:30pm. See Nadine Collier to purchase tickets, as soon as possible.

Double dose of Music to be presented: Two different noon programs will be presented this week in SAB 160. On Thursday - ConSpirito, a classical woodwind quintet based in Pittsburgh, PA will present a program of classical and contemporary pieces (including Opus Number 200 which should be fun!). This quintet is currently in residence at Duquesne Univ.

On Friday - Sebronette Barnes, soprano, will present a lecture/recital on the music of Black Americans. Spirituals and gospel pieces will be featured. Ms. Barnes is currently a doctoral candidate in music at Ohio State Univ.

Neo-African Art to be displayed: Bowling Green artist Kai Kambell's (who presented a lecture last week) art will be displayed in SAB 160 from Feb. 15-25. Twelve African prints and several paintings will be included. Viewing hours are: Mon. Feb. 16 10-12, Tues. Feb. 17 10-12; 1-2, Wed. Feb. 18 12-2, Thurs. Feb. 19 12-2, Fri. Feb. 20 12-2, and Sun Feb. 22 2-5.

Piano Recital highlights Black composers: In celebration of Black History Month, Michigan pianist Gail Barnes, will perform on Sunday at 3pm in SAB 160. Admission is free for the program. Works by John Wesley Work, Samuel Coleridge-Taylor and William Grant Still will be performed, in addition to three Black American spirituals.

Jack White, track shot & billiard artist appears Feb. 24: The infamous Jack White will return to campus next Tuesday at 9:30am & 1pm to share his tricks and humor. White has been touring colleges, military schools, military bases and even the White House for more than 20 years. Join the Social Activities Board for an entertaining time! (P.S. our own pool "sharks" will get a chance to beat Jack!).

***CATCH A WAVE*** Wax your surf board, get out the beach attire and join the SAB/WOSL for a Beach Party on Friday, Feb. 27 from 8-12:30am. Cost is $2.00 per person (which includes 2 beverages also) in advance or $2.50 at the door.
