NOTES OF INTEREST

MUSICAL THEATRE PROGRAM HERE TUESDAY - A delightful mini-musical, "The Problematic Princess", will arrive on campus on Tues April 28 in Reed Hall 160 at noon. Starring actress Megan Freeman in the title role, the story concerns a strong willed young woman who was given a handbook, a practise frog and explicit lessons on living happily ever after. In one impulsive moment she compromises everything, changing the course of her life forever! Gary Grundei has composed original music for the show. Don't miss this fast paced and fanciful production.

MAY WEEK IS COMING! MAY WEEK IS COMING! - It's worth saying twice! Be sure to sign up now for your favorite games and contests and be ready to PLAY when the fun starts on Mon May 4th. This annual campus wide spring fling is designed to get rid of the winter blues - so come on out and welcome spring! An amazing number of activities are available - something for everyone! Deadline for many of the team events such as the tournaments in volleyball, 3on3 basketball, euchre, pool, foosball, tug-of-war, scavenger hunt, 3-legged race and more is FRIDAY MAY 1. Get your group together NOW and sign up in the Athletic Office(CK105) or the Student Activities Office (GA066) today!

CHICKEN BARBECUE THE WAY YOU LIKE IT! - Everyone's favorite, HARLANS of PANDORA, will be preparing their famous barbecued chicken on Wed May 6th from 3:00 -6:00 in the courtyard in front of Reed Hall. (In case of rain, the meals will be available in the cafeteria). Student Senate members ask that you purchase your $5.00 tickets in advance at the Student Activities Office Galvin 066. Price includes 1/2 chicken, sides, and beverage. For your dining pleasure the musical group, INDOOR FINS, will provide music for this event.

BATTLE OF THE BANDS CAPS OFF WEEK! - Five great rock and roll bands will be competing for a cash prize on Sat May 9th. Admission is $3.50. Food and beverage will be available, so be sure to bring your I.D. along with the blankets and lawn chairs.

MATHEMATICS AWARENESS WEEK FEATURES CONTEST - The OSU Mathematics Learning Center will observe Mathematics Awareness Week (April 27 - May 1) with a variety of activities. The theme of this years celebration is MATHEMATICS AND THE ENVIRONMENT. Several short films on mathematics will be shown during the week and The Center will sponsor a math contest with $450.00 in prizes (Certificates to the Bookstore) for all Lima Campus students. There will be 3 levels of competition. Problem solution must be on an official entry form available in the Learning Center. For more information contact Pat Johnson in GA320 or Ext.472.

MAD RADS VICTORIOUS OVER WILD CATHS - The Radiography Club thanks all who participated in their first annual 1st year versus 2nd year softball game! The 1st year MAD RADS defeated the 2nd year WILD CATHS when Darrell Kennedy caught the winning out for a 7-6 victory. (Sounds like a close game!) A cookout is scheduled to celebrate and all Radiography faculty and students are welcome. See Nancy Kohls or Angie Eversole for more information.

DISTINGUISHED TEACHING NOMINATIONS DUE - Friday May 1st is the deadline for nominating your favorite Professor for the annual Distinguished Teaching Award. Forms are available in Communicator boxes, the Business Office in TEL, GA 107, GA066, GA205, Library and Cafeteria. Think back over the last year! Is there one outstanding teacher who has made a difference in your life? Show your appreciation with a nomination!

ALAN LANGE MEMORIAL ESSAY CONTEST HONORS LTC PROFESSOR - In memory of Alan Lange, Professor of General Studies at LTC, who passed away last year, an essay contest has been established in his honor. Criteria for the essay have been posted on the walls and more information can be obtained by contacting William Wells in GA460D, EXT. 213. A 1st prize of $75.00 and a 2nd prize of $25.00 will be awarded. Deadline for entries is May 15th.

UPS TO INTERVIEW FOR JOBS - United Parcel Service will have representatives on the campus from 11:00-2:00 in Tech Lab on Wed. April 29th. Both full and part-time jobs are available.

WANTED! STUDENT ASSISTANTS - The OSU Admissions Office at Ohio State Lima needs help giving tours to prospective students and hosting special events. Ten students are needed and will receive $4.85 an hour if hired. You must have a GPA of 2.3 or above. Applications are available in the Admissions Office GA 205; Student Activities GA066, Athletic Office CK105, and the Development Lab GA 466. Deadline for applications is Mon. May 18th.

BIBLE ON COMPUTER NETWORK - New Direction has the King James Bible and Concordance on the computer network in TL. Contact Mike Eilerman TL134 or Thurman Grass TL114 for more information.

RYAN WHITE'S MOTHER TO SPEAK - The Allen County AIDS Task Force is bringing Jeanne White to the OSU/LTC campus on Wed May 6th. Mrs. White will present "The Ryan White Story" at 7:00 p.m. in the Auditorium. Pre-sale tickets are $10.00 and students $5.00. At the door all tickets will be $15.00. Tickets are available in the Student Activities Office GA066. All proceeds will be used to fight AIDS. A reception will follow the program.

COMMONS SPECIAL - 1/2 lb. Hamburger & Fries $2.50
