

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Special Issue of JAPAS: Plain Anabaptist Education

The spring 2015 issue of JAPAS will have a special section focusing on education among the plain Anabaptists. Scholars currently working in this field or on manuscripts related to social, literary, legal, spatial, or other focuses among any plain Anabaptist group may submit manuscripts for consideration by January 15th. In addition to the special section about education, the issue will also contain the usual diversity of topics.

Anabaptist Roots in North American Landscapes: The Plain People Today

July 2-4, 2015

Leuphana Universität
Lüneburg, Germany

This international, interdisciplinary symposium will bring together scholars from the United States, Canada, and Germany to discuss a wide variety of topics concerning the plain people of North America. Confirmed keynote speakers include Donald Kraybill (Young Center for Anabaptist and Pietist Studies) and Ira Wagler (author of Growing Up Amish). For further details, please see the conference homepage <http://tinyurl.com/l3bpq3y> or contact nas@leuphana.de (conference organizers: Maryann Henck, Maria Moss, and Sabrina Völz).