

DSQ

DISABILITY STUDIES QUARTERLY

Fall 1999

[Published in March 2000]

Volume 19 No. 4

ISSN 1041-5718

Produced by:

The Center on Disability Studies
University of Hawai'i at Manoa
Honolulu, Hawai'i

and

The School of Social Sciences
The University of Texas at Dallas
Richardson, Texas

for

The Society for Disability Studies

Disability Studies Quarterly

Fall 1999
Volume 19 No. 4
ISSN 1041-5718

Founding Editor: Irving Kenneth Zola (1935-1994)

Editor: David Pfeiffer, University of Hawai'i at Manoa

Managing Editor: Richard Scotch, University of Texas at Dallas

Book, Video, and Film Review Editor: Elaine Makas, Lewiston Auburn College of the University of Southern Maine

Copy Editor: Jill Dobriner

Contributing Editor: Steven Brown, Institute on Disability Culture

Issue Theme: Boundary Issues in Disability Research

Guest Editor for this issue: Dona Avery, Arizona State University

Copyright 1999, all rights reserved, by the Society for Disability Studies;

authors retain a joint copyright with the Society in their articles

DSQ Editorial Board: Barbara Altman (Agency for Health Care Policy and Research); Karen Hirsch (ParaQuad); Paul Longmore (San Francisco State University); Lynn Schlesinger (SUNY at Plattsburgh); Richard Scotch (University of Texas at Dallas); ex-officio member: David Mitchell (University of Northern Michigan).

DSQ Steering Committee: Judy Norsigian (Boston Women's Health Book Collective); Howie Baker (Brandeis University); Gunnar Dybwad (Heller School, Brandeis University); Elaine Makas (Lewiston Auburn College of the University of Southern Maine); Adrienne Asch (Wellesley College); and David Pfeiffer (University of Hawai'i at Manoa).

Disability Studies Quarterly is published by the Society for Disability Studies. The Quarterly is a multidisciplinary and international journal of interest to social scientists, scholars in the humanities, disability rights advocates, and others concerned with the problems of people with disabilities. The purpose of the Quarterly is to provide a place where people from diverse backgrounds can share ideas and to engage in dialogues that cut across disciplinary backgrounds and substantive concerns. The Quarterly is committed to developing theoretical and practical knowledge about disability and to promoting the full and equal participation of persons with disabilities in society.

Disability Studies Quarterly is published four times a year. Each volume is the same as a calendar year. Although the Quarterly is a publication of the Society for Disability Studies, the subscription price for the Quarterly is not included in the dues for the Society. However, members of the Society are entitled to a reduced rate. The cost of a one year subscription can be found at the end of this volume. All subscription correspondence must be sent to the national office of the Society: Society for Disability Studies, c/o Professor Carol Gill, Department of Disability and Human Development, University of Illinois at Chicago (MC 626), 1640 Roosevelt Road #236, Chicago, IL 60608-6904.

Table of Contents

Pagination will vary in the print, email, and disk editions

Editor's Preface	293
Bridges to the New Millennium: Spanning Differences in Differing Streams of Disability Issues Dona Avery	294
I. Bridging the Disciplines and the (Dis)Abilities
A View from the Bridge: An Interdisciplinary Overview of the Social Relations of Disability Studies Mairian Corker	302
Disability Research: The Person or the Paradigm? David Pfeiffer	311
Ten Years Gone Kay M. Olson	313
II. Bridges from Self to Community
Family and Social
The Importance of Childhood Socialisation for the Career Progression of Disabled People Sonali Shah and Cheryl Travers	315
Implementing a Least-Restrictive Environment in a Movement-Education Camp for Children and Youth with Autism/PDD Maureen Connolly and Tom Craig	321
Performing Femininity: Frames, Agency and Disability Politics Petra Kuppers	330
Letter to Father Johnson Cheu	333
Experts
Parents and Professionals: Bridging the Gap Rosalyn Benjamin Darling	334
Connecting the Personal with the Professional Penelope M. Kearney	337
Birth Johnson Cheu	345
School
Disability and Inclusive Education: A United Kingdom Perspective Alec Webster, Carmel Hand, John Franey, and Peter Hingley	347
Quality Indicators in Special Education: A Comparative Study of the Attitudes of Special Educators in Singapore and the United States of America Dennis J. Rose	354

Economy & Autonomy

Blairfare: Third-Way Disability and Dependency in Britain

Jennifer Harris, Bob Sapey, John Stewart 360

Inequality, Neo-Liberalism, and Disability Marta Russell 372

The Need for a Personal Assistant: My Case of an Unmet "BENEFIT"

Rachel Ogami 388

III. Towards Integration of Identity(ies)

Disability, Political Activism, and Identity Making: A Critical Feminist Perspective on the Rise of Disability Movements in Australia, the USA, and the UK

Helen Meekosha and Andrew Jakubowicz 393

Them and Us? Erik Leipoldt 405

Book Review Dona Avery 411

Book Reviews 413

Books for Kids 430

Video Clips 431

Resources 435

Announcements 436

Solicitations 436

The Society for Disability Studies 442

Subscription Information 442

Reviews, Indexing, and Advertisements 442

Future issues of Disability Studies Quarterly and guest editor(s) 443