

I/S: A JOURNAL OF LAW AND POLICY FOR THE INFORMATION SOCIETY

VOLUME 3 NUMBER 3 WINTER 2007–08

CONTENTS

2007 PRIVACY YEAR IN REVIEW

Introductory Essay for “2007 Privacy Year in Review”

Peter P. Swire & Martha K. Landesberg373

National Security Surveillance and National Authentication Systems:

The Terrorist Surveillance Program: Assessing the Legality of the Unknown

Austin Anderson387

The NSA, AT&T, and the Secrets of Room 641A

Stephen Manuel Wolfson411

The National Identification Debate: “REAL ID” and Voter Identification

Debra Milberg.....443

Government Surveillance in Context, for E-mails, Location, and Video:

Personal Privacy in the Face of Government Use of GPS

Kevin Keener473

You Better Watch Out, You Better Not Frown, New Video Surveillance Techniques are Already in Town (and Other Public Spaces)

Carla Scherr.....499

The Right to Privacy in Electronic Communications: Current Fourth Amendment and Statutory Protection in the Wake of Warshak v. United States

Erin E. Wright531

Privacy on the Internet and in Organizational Databases:

Data Breaches: Recent Developments in the Public and Private Sectors

Michael E. Jones555

Anti-Spyware Enforcement: Recent Developments
Megan M. Engle.....581

Phishing for the Answer: Recent Developments in Combating Phishing
Rasha AlMahroos595

Recent Developments in RFID Technology: Weighing Utility Against Potential Privacy Concerns
Laura M. Ulatowski623

Sensitive Financial and Medical Information:

Major Developments in Financial Privacy Law 2006: The SWIFT
 Database Incident, and Updates to the Gramm-Leach-Bliley and Fair
 Credit Reporting Acts
Sarah Elizabeth Exten.....649

Developments in HIPAA and Health Information Technology
Cicely N. Tingle677

International Issues:

Between East and West: The APEC Privacy Framework and the Balance of International Data Flows
Carla Bulford705

ARTICLES

The Federal Trade Commission and Consumer Privacy in the Coming Decade
*Joseph Turow, Chris Jay Hoofnagle, Deirdre K. Mulligan, Nathaniel Good, & Jens Grossklags*723

When Does Preemption Not Really Preempt? The Role of State Law after
 CAN-SPAM
Rita Marie Cain751

Tracking RFID
Jonathan Weinberg777