Vol. XLIX No. 44 October 31, 2000

Carol Diedrichs, assistant director for Technical Services, in her best golfing form.

When a person looks at a game of football, he tends to see a reflection of his own life. If it's mainly violence and getting ahead and winning at all costs, he'll tend to see that in the game. Or if life is mainly statistics and numbers and measurements, he'll tend to see that many people have an incredible interest in football statistics. People look at the game and project their own reality onto it.

CO-ASIST* Program Meeting

All about CORC (Cooperative Online Resource Catalog)

Tuesday, November 21, 2000

7:00pm refreshments

7:30 -9:00pm program

OCLC--Kilgour Auditorium

Main level, Kilgour Building

6565 Frantz Road

Dublin, Ohio

See map at <http://www.oclc.org/oclc/menu/map3.htm>

Are you tired of thrashing around in the Web swamp?

CORC is one solution to the problem!

Libraries can use CORC to identify, select, catalog, maintain, and access Web resources.

Come to the next CO-ASIS&T program to learn about:

- The background on CORC--what, why, and OCLC's vision for its future (Sharon Bosarge, OCLC)
- The public service aspects of CORC (Susan Logan, OSU Libraries)
- What kinds of resources libraries are selecting for CORC (Tschera Harkness Connell, OSU Libraries)

Everyone is welcome to attend, and the event is FREE of charge, but please make reservations with Judy Wagner at 614-292-8625 or wagner.6@osu.edu

*Central Ohio Chapter, American Society for Information Science & Technology

Features

Memorial Tree for Jay Ladd

The staff of the Chadwick Arboretum replaced the memorial tree commemorating the life and work of Assistant Director of Libraries Jay Ladd. The original tree succumbed to a combination of insect damage and last summer's drought. This replacement tree is also a Lace Bark Elm (cultivar= D.B. Cole).

Deb Cameron (Technical Services) was able to capture the installation of the new tree on a digital camera last week. Ryan Langhurst, facilities coordinator, has agreed to co-ordinate watering duties until the cold weather hits. The Chadwick staff will re-install the plant stake plaques shortly.

Luminous Lucubrations

Last week's entry, "hieratic", means, "of or associated with sacred persons or offices; sacerdotal." This week's entry is "obtrude."

Veterans Day Holiday Friday, November 10, 2000 will be observed as Veterans Day. The Main Library and all department libraries will be open regular quarter hours. Classes will not be in session that day. Faculty, Civil Service, and Administrative and Professional personnel will have the day off. Staff members shall not be required to work on the holiday unless, in the opinion of the responsible University Officer, failure to work on this holiday will impair the public service. Staff who are required to work are entitled to pay for the time worked at one and one-half times their regular base pay in addition to their regular pay or be granted compensatory time off at time and one-half. Department Heads should submit in writing (or by e-mail) the names of employees who are required to work on this holiday, to Charles E. Smith (smith.3822@osu.edu) in the Library Personnel Office no later than 12:00 p.m., Thursday, November 09, 2000. The number of hours to be worked and whether the employee is to be paid OVERTIME or COMPENSATORY time should be indicated on the list. Any corrections should be phoned in (or e-mailed) before 12:00p.m. Tuesday, November 14, 2000

To comply with University procedures, employees who are applying for listed vacancies must complete a Promotion/Transfer Request (form 8931, Rev 9/97) during the week of the first listing of the vacancy in the University Personnel Posting (green sheet). To ensure awareness of all library vacancies which have been posted, applicants should consult the weekly green sheet rather than relying on the listing in News Notes Online and are encouraged to attach a resume and/or other supporting documents to the form. Prospective faculty and staff applicants who are absent during the five day posting period and wish to apply should see Toni Morrison.
